Product overview

The Nastrino Afghanistan Campaign is a campaign ribbon for military personnel who served on active duty in Afghanistan and for collectors of military surplus and tactical gear. It is intended for veterans, service members, and display on regulation ribbon bars.

Definition: The Nastrino Afghanistan Campaign is the official campaign ribbon awarded for qualifying service in Afghanistan beginning 24 October 2001.

Main features

Durable, regulation-size ribbon available in standard and slightly curved Elite finishing, with multiple mounting options for use on ribbon bars or displays.

- Official recognition: Awarded to personnel who meet the qualifying service criteria in Afghanistan.
- Eligibility: 30 consecutive days or 60 non-consecutive days of active service in Afghanistan, retroactive to 24 October 2001.
- Wounded or deceased: Personnel wounded in action or those killed in the line of duty are eligible regardless of time served.
- Regulation size: Supplied only in format 37 (regulation size).
- Finish options: Flat regulation or slightly domed Elite variant.
- Mounting choices: Rear attachment with clamps or screws; available packed on metal bases for two or more ribbons.
- Loose ribbon option: Sold as loose ribbon with a minimum length of 50 cm for custom work.

How to use / When it’s useful

Use the ribbon on regulation ribbon bars, veteran displays, or as part of a military surplus collection. Choose clamps or screws depending on your ribbon bar or display needs.

Quick answer: Wear the ribbon when you meet the official service criteria and local uniform rules allow it. In most cases, choose the regulation flat format for uniform wear and the Elite variant for display or collector pieces.

Care and notes

Keep the ribbon clean and mounted securely; select the correct attachment and format for your intended use.

- Store in a dry place to avoid fabric or finish damage.
- Choose clamps or screws to match your ribbon bar or display backing.
- Loose ribbon sold from 50 cm minimum for custom sewing or repairs.
- Check service or unit regulations before wearing on active duty uniforms.

FAQ

Q: Who is eligible for the Nastrino Afghanistan Campaign?

A: Eligibility requires 30 consecutive days or 60 non-consecutive days of active service in Afghanistan, with the award retroactive to 24 October 2001. Wounded or killed personnel are eligible regardless of time served.

Q: What mounting options are available?

A: You can select rear clamps or screws for attachment. Choose the option that fits your ribbon bar or display backing.

Q: Are there different finishes or formats?

A: The ribbon is available only in regulation format 37, in either a flat regulation finish or a slightly domed Elite variant.

Q: Can I buy the ribbon as loose material?

A: Yes. Loose ribbon is available with a minimum purchase length of 50 cm for tailoring, repairs, or custom mounting.

Q: How can I mount multiple ribbons together?

A: Multiple ribbons can be mounted on a metal ribbon base designed for two or more places. Select the appropriate ribbon bar accessory for secure, neat display.

Q: Is this product suitable for collectors or tactical/military surplus displays?

A: Yes. The ribbon suits veteran displays, military surplus collections, and tactical gear holders, while remaining compliant with regulation size and common mounting methods.

Tip: Choose the correct attachment (clamps or screws) and the format (flat regulation or Elite) before ordering, and browse related ribbon bars and accessory items to complete your display or uniform set.
