How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Use the badge as a lapel pin, part of a display case, or a keepsake for reunion and memorial events. It works well for collectors of military surplus, tactical memorabilia, and duty or police mementos.

In most cases, the badge is worn on civilian clothing for remembrance or placed in a collection display. It is useful at commemorative ceremonies, meetings of former mission members, or as a meaningful gift for someone linked to the mission.

Care and notes

Simple care will keep the badge looking presentable in a collection or on occasional wear.

- Wipe with a soft, dry or slightly damp cloth to remove dust.
- Avoid harsh chemicals and abrasive cleaners that can damage the finish.
- Store in a dry place, preferably in a padded box or display case.
- Note: quantities are limited—availability can change quickly.
