- Reverse detail: Five-pointed star on the back for added distinction.
- Ribbon: Yellow ribbon charged at centre with three tricolour bands (green-white-red) of 4 mm each.
- Size: Available only in the 37 mm format.
- Build quality: Made with quality materials and fine detailing suitable for display and collection.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: ideal for display, historical collections, or as a verified piece of naval memorabilia for veterans and collectors. In most cases, owners keep this cross in a shadowbox, collection case, or museum-style display rather than everyday wear.

Use it to document service history, complement military surplus or tactical collections, or as a reference item for restoration and research. If you plan to wear any service decoration, confirm official entitlement before use.

Care and notes

Basic care guidance and practical notes for collectors and buyers.

- Handle with clean hands and store in a dry, cool place away from direct sunlight to preserve finish.
- Avoid aggressive polishing that could remove patina or detailing; use gentle, non-abrasive cleaning if needed.
- Available only in the 37 mm size and with the specified tricolour ribbon—check size before purchase.
- Limited quantities: availability may run out, so consider ordering promptly if required for a collection.
- Only display or wear if you have official entitlement; this item represents the awarded cross but entitlement rules remain authoritative.
