Product overview

The Soggolo da Capitano Esercito is a decorative rank band for the official peaked cap, intended for serving officers of the Esercito Italiano and authorized collectors. It is designed to identify the rank of Captain and to match the formal appearance of the uniform.

Definition: The soggolo is a gold-trimmed cap band fixed above the visor of the rigid service cap. Made from quality materials and produced to match official standards, it suits duty use, ceremonial wear and military surplus collections.

Main features

Key construction details and materials at a glance.

- Gold fabric ribbon: 16 mm width with a 2 mm central lustrone for added shine.
- Black leather base: sturdy, weather-resistant support for the ribbon.
- Rank galloons: three gold galloons per side with black edging; positioned at temple height.
- Fastening system: two gold metal buttons placed above the visor for secure attachment.
- Durable finishes: metal parts have anti-oxidation treatment to preserve brightness.
- Compatibility: made for the official rigid peaked cap used by male and female personnel of the Esercito Italiano.

How to use / When it’s useful

Attach the soggolo above the visor of the official peaked cap using the two metal buttons so the galloons sit at temple level. It is appropriate for daily duty, formal ceremonies and parades where correct uniform insignia are required.

Quick answer: Use it to show Captain rank on the official cap during service and ceremonial duties. In most cases, it is fitted to the standard rigid cap for Esercito Italiano personnel and should be handled as part of the uniform set.

Care and notes

Simple care keeps the soggolo looking correct and preserves materials over time.

- Wipe the ribbon and leather with a soft, dry cloth; avoid soaking or harsh detergents.
- Store in a dry place away from direct sunlight to protect the gold finish and leather.
- Sale is reserved for Esercito Italiano personnel and authorized collectors; appropriate documentation is required before purchase.
- Deliveries to private addresses may be allowed only after verification; otherwise, delivery can be made to barracks or authorized addresses.

FAQ

Q: Who can buy the Soggolo da Capitano Esercito?

A: The item is reserved for serving personnel of the Esercito Italiano and for collectors who hold the required prefectural license (art. 28 TULPS). Authorization is verified before sale.

Q: What documents are needed to purchase?

A: Military buyers must provide a copy of their service ID or a valid service attestation. Collectors must provide a valid prefectural license under art. 28 TULPS. Documents are checked by staff.

Q: How is the soggolo attached to the cap?

A: It fixes above the visor with two gold metal buttons; the galloons should align at the temple height when correctly mounted.

Q: Can the soggolo be shipped to a home address?

A: Shipping to a private address may be possible after document verification. If verification is not provided, delivery is typically limited to barracks or authorized locations.

Q: How long does document verification take?

A: Verification is normally completed within a few working hours after submission, after which purchase authorization is confirmed by email.

Q: Are other restricted military items available on the site?

A: Yes, other reserved items are listed in the catalog. Purchase of restricted items requires the same verification and authorization process.
