Italfor Albatros Badge

www.tuttomilitare.com

Product price:

€6.50 tax included

Product codes:

Reference: Dist. MR/5949
EAN13: 0658606551770
UPC: 658606551770

Product features:

Product short description:

The Distintivo Italfor Albatros Mozambico is a commemorative badge from Italfor, intended for collectors, military enthusiasts and those who value ceremonial insignia. It embodies the pride and dedication associated with the Italian armed forces and is ideal for display cases or as a meaningful gift.

- Material: Made from quality materials with careful, detailed finishing.
- Design: Elegant, refined emblem that evokes honor and courage.
- Use: Suitable for wear on uniforms, ceremonial display or as part of a collection.
- Condition: Collector-grade emblem presented for display or careful wear.

Product description:

Product overview

The Distintivo Albatros Italfor is a 2.4 cm silver metal commemorative badge for collectors, military history enthusiasts, and those interested in military surplus or tactical memorabilia. It honors the Italfor Albatros mission in Mozambique (1993–1994) involving the Italian alpine troops Julia and Taurinense.

Definition: A small silver metal badge that commemorates the Italfor Albatros mission in Mozambique (1993–1994). This compact badge is designed for display, collection, or light wear by private individuals and collectors.

Main features

Carefully produced with a focus on historical detail and lasting finish, the badge is a practical addition to any collection of military surplus, tactical gear, or duty memorabilia.

- Material: Silver-plated metal for a durable, traditional look.
- Commemorative design: Marks the Italfor Albatros mission in Mozambique (1993–1994).
- Compact size: 2.4 cm diameter, easy to display or store.
- Collector appeal: Suited to military collectors and history enthusiasts.
- Good value: Presented as an accessible item for collectors and gift buyers.
- Limited availability: Produced in restrained quantities due to its commemorative nature.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Use the badge as a display item in a case, on a lapel board, or as part of a military surplus collection. It is primarily intended as a collectible or memento rather than an official uniform insignia.

In most cases, collectors keep it in a shadow box, medal display, or on a dedicated badge board; some wear it informally on civilian clothing for commemorative purposes. It makes a considered gift for those interested in Italian military history, alpine units, or tactical memorabilia.

Care and notes

Keep the badge in a dry, stable environment and handle it gently to preserve its finish and detail.

- Avoid strong chemicals or abrasive cleaners that could damage the silver plating.
- Store in a soft pouch or display case to prevent scratches and reduce tarnishing.
- Small size: keep away from young children to avoid choking hazards.
- Limited production: availability can be restricted, so consider ordering promptly if required.

FAQ

Q: What are the badge dimensions?

A: The badge measures 2.4 cm in diameter. Its compact size is suitable for display, storage, or light wear on civilian clothing.

Q: What material is the badge made of?

A: The badge is made from silver-plated metal. The finish offers a traditional look while providing basic surface durability.

Q: What does the badge commemorate?

A: It commemorates the Italfor Albatros mission in Mozambique during 1993–1994, which involved Italian alpine troops Julia and Taurinense.

Q: Is this an official uniform insignia?

A: No. This piece is a commemorative badge intended for collectors and private use. It does not replace or imply authorization as an official uniform insignia.

Q: Can I wear the badge?

A: Yes, it can be worn informally on civilian clothing, but it is mainly intended for display and collection. Check any local or organizational rules if you plan to wear it in official or formal settings.

Q: Is the badge easy to find?

A: Availability is limited due to its commemorative nature. Demand can be high among collectors, so stock may not last long.

Tip: Choose the right variant or size if multiple badge formats are offered and browse related military surplus badges and tactical memorabilia to complete your collection. Consider a display case or mounting board to preserve the badge and show it off neatly.

Product attributes:

Product gallery: