Product overview

The Crest Araldico Corpo Forestale dello Stato is a heraldic wooden plaque that reproduces the official shield of the Italian State Forestry Corps. It is designed for collectors, former or serving personnel, offices, and anyone who wants a respectful display of Italy’s forestry service emblem.

Definition: This product is a 17 cm x 23 cm ornamental crest on a high-quality wooden base, showing the Corps' traditional symbols and motto.

Main features

High-quality craftsmanship and accurate heraldic detail make this crest suitable for display or collection.

- Unique design: Golden eagle with outstretched wings, shown in profile, perched on a severed tree trunk and branch on a dark blue background.
- Rich symbolism: Shield topped by a green field with three gold oak acorns, representing strength and resilience in nature.
- Corona turrita: The shield is surmounted by a gold mural crown with black masonry detailing and tower features, a traditional symbol of authority.
- Inscripted motto: Gold scroll below the shield with the Latin motto "PRO NATURA OPUS ET VIGILANTIA" (Work and vigilance for nature).
- Materials and size: Mounted on a high-quality wooden base; dimensions 17 cm width x 23 cm height.
- Suitable display: Designed for indoor use in offices, homes, or private collections.

How to use / When it's useful

This crest is ideal for display on a shelf, wall, or within a collection as a formal emblem of the Corps. It works well as a commemorative piece, office decoration, or gift for those connected to forestry, law enforcement, or military and tactical memorabilia.

Quick answer: Use it as an indoor display item in an office, study, or collection case.
In most cases, mounting or placement is straightforward—place on a shelf or hang if your display setup allows.

Care and notes

Simple care preserves the finish and detail; handle gently and keep the crest in a stable indoor environment.

- Dust regularly with a soft, dry cloth.
- Avoid direct sunlight and high humidity to prevent fading or wood damage.
- Intended for indoor display only; not weatherproof.
- Available in limited quantities—store and handle carefully to retain value.
