Product overview

Metal rank insignia for the Sergente Maggiore Capo of the Esercito Italiano, made for the rigid shoulder boards of the ordinary uniform. This item is intended for serving military personnel and verified collectors who hold the required authorisations.

Definition: A green enameled metal plate with gilt brass chevrons arranged in a V, designed to show the Sergente Maggiore Capo rank on duty uniforms. Suitable for tactical displays, military surplus collections, duty gear and formal uniform use.

Main features

Carefully manufactured insignia that match the visual style and dimensions commonly required for the Italian Army ordinary uniform.

- Overall size: total width 4.5 cm, each wing length 3.5 cm.
- Design: two small chevrons and one larger chevron arranged in a V with the point downward; 2 mm black-painted spacing between chevrons.
- Material: green enameled metal plate with gold edging and gilt brass chevrons.
- Detail: transverse gilt brass bar below the chevron point, streaked and edged in black.
- Finish: professional, durable finish intended for regular uniform wear.

How to use / When it’s useful

Attach these metal insignia to rigid shoulder boards of the ordinary uniform to display the Sergente Maggiore Capo rank clearly and accurately. They are intended for official duty wear and for collectors who meet legal requirements.

Quick answer: Use on rigid shoulder boards of the ordinary uniform for clear, visible rank identification. In most cases, orders must include proof of military status or a collector’s licence to complete purchase and delivery.

Care and notes

Basic care extends the life and appearance of the metal insignia; handle with care to keep the enamel and gilt finish intact.

- Clean gently with a soft, dry cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners.
- Store flat or attached to the uniform to prevent bending or scratches.
- Sale restricted: available only to military personnel or collectors with licenza prefettizia ex art. 28 TULPS.
- When ordering, prepare a copy of your military ID or the required collector licence; delivery to a barracks address is acceptable.
