Product overview

The Distintivo Esperto d'Area Guardia di Finanza is a metal service badge for members of the Guardia di Finanza who have completed the 1° level Area Expert course and further specialization. It is intended for duty use and for qualified collectors who hold the required prefectural license.

Definition: a 3.5 cm copper-finish metal badge that identifies trained Area Experts of the Guardia di Finanza and signifies specialized operational competence.

Main features

Clear, durable design and official markings make this badge suitable for service display or certified collections.

- Copper-finish metal disk, diameter 3.5 cm.
- Central motif: winged griffin with one paw on a chest (symbol of vigilance and protection).
- Top inscription in black uppercase: "GUARDIA DI FINANZA".
- Bottom inscription in black uppercase: "ESPERTO D'AREA".
- Suitable for duty display and for collectors with required legal documentation.

How to use / When it’s useful

Worn or kept as a service badge to show qualification and specialization within Guardia di Finanza; can also be added to certified military surplus or police collections. Quick answer: it identifies trained Area Experts and is used as a mark of role and competence.

In most cases, purchase and possession are limited to authorized personnel or licensed collectors; this ensures compliance with service rules and public-safety regulations. Use with standard uniform rules or store securely as part of a regulated collection.

Care and notes

Maintain the badge by storing it dry and handling with care; it is a small metal item that can tarnish or scratch if not protected.

- Store in a soft, dry pouch or display case to avoid scratches.
- Clean gently with a soft cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners.
- Sale reserved: Guardia di Finanza personnel must provide identity or service attestation.
- Collectors must supply a prefectural license (ex art. 28 TULPS) to complete purchase.
- Limited availability: orders may be restricted by stock and verification requirements.
