Product overview

These Mostrine Cavalleria 28° Cavalleggeri di Treviso are enameled cavalry collar tabs for collectors, reenactors, and shoppers of military surplus, tactical and duty gear. They suit anyone interested in Italian military history, police/duty memorabilia, or uniform display.

Definition: A pair of enameled collar insignia (25 x 50 mm) showing a three-point flame on a blue rectangular field with a five-point silver-colored metal star; sold as a pair with clamp-style rear fasteners. Limited quantities are available due to artisanal production.

Main features

Key features that make these insignia suitable for display or uniform use:

- Distinctive design: Red enamel three-point flame on a blue rectangular background with a five-point silver-colored star.
- Durable finish: Enameled surface and metal star for long-lasting appearance.
- Compact size: Measures 25 x 50 mm — easy to wear or display.
- Secure attachment: Clamp-style rear fasteners for reliable fitting on uniforms or mounts.
- Sold as a pair: One matching left/right set included.
- Historical value: Represents the insignia of the 28° Cavalleggeri di Treviso regiment.

How to use / When it’s useful

Use these mostrine on uniforms, tunics, or in a display case for a collection. They are suitable for collectors, historical displays, reenactment groups, and military surplus enthusiasts.

Quick answer: Attach the tabs using the clamp-style fasteners on the back for a secure fit. In most cases, they are fitted directly to collar points or display mounts and are ideal when you want an authentic-looking insignia for presentation or uniform use.

Care and notes

Basic care and practical notes to keep the insignia in good condition:

- Store in a dry place to preserve the enamel and metal finish.
- Handle by the edges to avoid fingerprints on the enamel.
- Ensure clamps are fastened securely when worn on a uniform.
- Stock is limited due to artisanal production; availability may be restricted.

FAQ

Q: What are the exact dimensions?

A: Each mostrina measures 25 x 50 mm. The listing shows the size so you can check fit for uniforms or display frames.

Q: How do the mostrine attach to a uniform?

A: They use clamp-style rear fasteners for a secure and simple fit. Fasten the clamp to the collar point or fabric edge as needed.

Q: What materials are used?

A: The tabs are enameled (red flame motif) with a silver-colored metal five-point star, as described in the product details.

Q: Are they sold individually or as a pair?

A: These mostrine are sold as a matching pair — one left and one right tab — ready for use or display.

Q: Can I wear these on a modern uniform?

A: Yes, they are suitable for wearing on compatible uniform collars or for display, provided the attachment and placement meet your uniform regulations.

Q: Are these original wartime items or reproductions?

A: The listing describes enameled collar insignia with artisanal production and limited quantity. For specific provenance or historical authenticity, check the product condition details on the page or contact the seller for more information.
