Product overview

The Fregio Metallo Corpo Forestale dello Stato is a gold-toned metal cap badge intended for service use by Corpo Forestale dello Stato personnel and for licensed collectors. It is designed for the rigid service cap and reflects the historical insignia of the corps (now merged into the Arma dei Carabinieri).

Definition: A gold-toned metal cap badge depicting an eagle with crossed axes and a central green oval with the RI acronym. Suitable for uniform use, military surplus collections, and duty or tactical display.

Main features

Key features and details that matter for uniform use and collecting:

- Material: Gold-toned metal for a durable, formal appearance.
- Design: Eagle with spread wings clutching two crossed axes; central green oval with the RI (Repubblica Italiana) acronym.
- Intended use: Made for the rigid service cap (berretto rigido).
- Size: 10.5 cm width x 7 cm height.
- Availability: Reserved product—sales limited to military personnel and to collectors with a prefectural license.

How to use / When it’s useful

Use this badge on the rigid service cap to restore or maintain an authentic uniform appearance, or add it to a military surplus or police equipment collection. It is most relevant for historical displays, uniform restoration, and licensed collectors.

Quick answer: It is intended for the berretto rigido as a uniform insignia. In most cases, buyers must be military personnel or collectors with a valid prefectural license to purchase this item.

Care and notes

Basic care and legal notes to keep the badge in good condition and compliant with regulations:

- Store dry and avoid prolonged exposure to moisture to prevent tarnishing.
- Clean gently with a soft, dry or lightly damp cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners or harsh chemicals.
- Sales are restricted: the item is reserved to military personnel and to collectors holding a prefectural license (not for free sale).
- Do not alter official insignia or display it in ways that conflict with local regulations.

FAQ

Q: Who can purchase the Fregio Metallo Corpo Forestale dello Stato?

A: The badge is reserved for active or former military personnel of the corps and for collectors who hold a prefectural license. It is not available for general retail sale.

Q: What are the exact dimensions of the badge?

A: The badge measures 10.5 cm in width and 7 cm in height, sized for standard rigid service caps.

Q: What material is the badge made from?

A: It is made of gold-toned metal. The finish provides a formal look suitable for uniform and display use.

Q: What does the badge design represent?

A: The design shows an eagle with spread wings clutching two crossed axes; a central green oval bears the RI acronym for Repubblica Italiana, symbolizing the corps' identity and role.

Q: Can I buy this badge without a prefectural license?

A: No. Purchase is restricted; collectors must present a valid prefectural license and military personnel qualify under their service regulations.

Q: Is this badge suitable for collection or uniform replacement?

A: Yes. It is intended both for use on the rigid service cap and for collectors of military surplus, tactical insignia, and police equipment, provided purchase complies with applicable rules.

Tip: Choose the correct size and verify licensing requirements before buying; browse related uniform and military surplus items to complete your display or restoration project.
