Product overview

The Soggolo Maggiore Arma Carabinieri is an official uniform cord reserved for officers of the Carabinieri and for licensed collectors. It is intended for duty and ceremonial use by the corps and those legally authorized to possess it.

Definition: the Soggolo Maggiore Arma Carabinieri is a silver canutiglia cord with two twisted ends that identifies the rank of Maggiore. Sales are limited and require proof of entitlement or a prefectural license (art. 28 TULPS) for collectors.

Main features

Key characteristics that make this soggolo suitable for uniform use and for collectors of military surplus and police items.

- Silver canutiglia construction: Made with silver-coloured braided wire for an authentic look.
- Two twisted ends: Traditional design consistent with Carabinieri uniform items.
- Rank identification: Silver galloncini edged in black at the temple area indicate the rank of Maggiore.
- Reserved availability: Sold only to Carabinieri personnel or to collectors presenting a prefectural license (art. 28 TULPS).
- Durability: Designed to maintain appearance during regular duty and ceremonial use.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Wear the soggolo as part of the official uniform where regulations specify its use; it serves to identify rank and complete the formal appearance of duty or ceremonial dress. Follow your unit’s uniform guidelines for correct placement and wear.

In most cases, purchases are delivered to a military or police station address when requested, or to a verified private buyer who has submitted the required documentation. This product is particularly relevant for duty uniforms, ceremonial events, and collectors of authentic military surplus or police regalia.

Care and notes

Basic care and important sale conditions to keep in mind.

- Store in a dry place to preserve the silver finish and avoid tarnishing.
- Handle gently to prevent deformation of the braided canutiglia.
- Sale is restricted: provide a copy of your Carabinieri ID or indicate the station as delivery location.
- Collectors must present a prefectural license (art. 28 TULPS) to purchase.
- Availability is limited and the product is primarily sold within national territory in line with regulations.

FAQ

Q: Who can purchase the Soggolo Maggiore Arma Carabinieri?

A: Only members of the Carabinieri and collectors who hold a prefectural license (art. 28 TULPS) can purchase this item. Proof is required at checkout.

Q: What documents are required to buy?

A: Carabinieri buyers must provide a copy of their service ID or state the station/command as the delivery address. Collectors must upload a valid prefectural license.

Q: Is international shipping available?

A: Sales are mainly restricted to national territory to comply with regulations. International sales are subject to local laws and may be limited.

Q: How can I check product availability?

A: Availability is shown on the product page. Quantities are limited due to the reserved nature of the item, so check the page before ordering.

Q: Can I return this item?

A: Return policies for reserved items may differ from standard products. Consult the site’s returns section for conditions specific to restricted uniform pieces.

Q: What proves the item is authentic?

A: The design, materials and restricted sale to Carabinieri personnel or licensed collectors support authenticity. Retain purchase documentation for records.

Tip: Choose the correct variant or delivery option (station vs. private address) and verify required documents before ordering. Browse related tactical and military surplus items for matching uniform accessories or collector pieces.
