How to use / When it’s useful

Wear the badge on the pocket of the ordinary service uniform where insignia are normally placed. It works well for daily duty, ceremonial use, and for collectors displaying military surplus items.

Quick answer: Attach the badge to the uniform pocket — it is made for a secure fit and visible placement.
In most cases, it is used by service members as an official identifier, while collectors and tactical gear buyers use it for display or uniform replica projects.

Care and notes

Simple care keeps the badge in good condition and ensures safe wear.

- Wipe gently with a soft, dry cloth to remove fingerprints and dust.
- Avoid harsh chemicals or abrasive cleaners that could affect the finish.
- Check the attachment regularly to ensure the badge remains securely fastened.
- Keep out of reach of children due to small size and potential choking hazard.
