Product overview

The Pennacchio for the Lucerna Carabinieri is the red-and-blue plume used on the historic Lucerna helmet of the Carabinieri, intended for ceremonial use by serving personnel and licensed collectors. It is a decorative headpiece element for the Grande Uniforme Storica (G.U.S.).

Definition: a handcrafted plume made from dyed rooster feathers, sized and shaped to mount on the Lucerna for formal parades and duty appearances. Suitable for military, police ceremonial and military surplus collectors.

Main features

Carefully made to match the traditional look and fit of the Lucerna, the pennacchio combines historical colors, durable materials and a secure fixing system.

- Colors: scarlet red top and turquoise blue lower section, the official Carabinieri colors.
- Material: high-quality rooster feathers (Gallus gallus), dyed and hand-cut.
- Dimensions: elongated, curved shape, overall length 42 cm for correct proportion with the Lucerna.
- Mounting: feathers fixed on a twisted metal stem and wrapped to a final shaft for stability and easy attachment.
- Durability: materials selected for wear and weather resistance to keep the plume in good condition during use.
- Packaging: delivered in a rigid protective box to prevent damage during transport.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: the pennacchio is worn only on the Lucerna as part of the Grande Uniforme Storica for formal ceremonies, parades and official duties. It is not intended for everyday field use.

In most cases, it is used by Carabinieri on ceremonial duty or by licensed collectors displaying a period uniform. The design keeps the plume stable during movement and public events, ensuring a polished, authoritative appearance.

Care and notes

Handle and store the pennacchio carefully to preserve feather shape and color; follow these simple care tips and legal notes.

- Avoid prolonged exposure to heavy rain or direct sunlight; store in its protective box when not in use.
- Do not wash with water or machine-clean; clean gently with a soft brush or by a specialist conservator if needed.
- Handle by the base or shaft to avoid damaging the feather tips.
- Purchase note: sale is restricted—see requirements below (military ID or valid prefettizia license may be required).

FAQ

Q: Who can buy the Pennacchio for Lucerna Carabinieri?

A: Sales are generally limited to active Carabinieri personnel and collectors who hold a valid prefettizia license, in line with national regulations.

Q: What documents are needed to buy?

A: Active personnel must provide military ID or service certificate. Collectors must present a valid prefettizia license as proof of authorization.

Q: How is the pennacchio delivered?

A: It is shipped in a rigid protective box designed to protect the feathers and shaft during transport.

Q: Can I receive it at home?

A: Yes, delivery can be to a private address or to a barracks address, according to the buyer's preference and registration details.

Q: What material is the plume made of?

A: The plume is made from dyed rooster feathers (Gallus gallus), hand-cut and assembled for traditional appearance and durability.

Q: How is the pennacchio fixed to the Lucerna?

A: Feathers are mounted on a reinforced stem with a final wrapped shaft and loop to ensure a secure fit during ceremonies and movement.

Tip: Choose the correct length and mounting style for your Lucerna and legal status—check required documentation before ordering and consider browsing matching ceremonial items and military surplus accessories to complete the Grande Uniforme Storica look.
