Product overview

The Fregio Ricamato Aviazione Leggera Esercito is an embroidered cap badge intended for members of the Aviazione Leggera of the Esercito (Army). It is designed to be worn on the service cap and identifies service, rank and unit affiliation.

Definition: a gold canutiglia (bullion thread) embroidered badge on khaki cloth, made for Army personnel. This item is commonly listed with military surplus and tactical insignia or duty cap accessories for search and cataloging purposes.

Main features

Key points at a glance:

- Material: gold canutiglia embroidery on khaki cloth for a durable, traditional finish.
- Design: a gold eagle in flight above a flaming torch, representing strength and guidance.
- Size: 8.5 cm width x 7 cm height — sized to fit standard service caps without excess bulk.
- Durability: built to retain appearance over time with normal wear for duty and ceremonial use.
- Sales restriction: reserved for Esercito personnel; purchase requires documentation or delivery to the unit command.
- Collectors: permitted only on presentation of the prefettizia license ex art. 28 TULPS.

How to use / When it’s useful

The badge is intended to be attached to the beret or service cap of Aviazione Leggera Esercito personnel for daily duty, formal events, and ceremonial use. Quick answer: wear it on the designated cap position to show unit affiliation and rank context.

In most cases, this item is used by serving military members; collectors can purchase it only with the required prefettizia license. The badge is also suitable for display in collections of military surplus or tactical insignia.

Care and notes

Basic care and important notices for correct purchase and preservation:

- Handle gently; avoid abrasive cleaning to preserve the gold canutiglia thread.
- Keep dry and store flat to prevent distortion of the embroidery.
- Sale is restricted: you must provide a copy of military ID or specify the command headquarters as the delivery address.
- Collectors must send a copy of the prefettizia license ex art. 28 TULPS to complete the purchase.
