Product overview

The Distintivo Alpini 3 Btg Monte Assietta is a historic military badge for collectors, museums, and enthusiasts of military surplus and tactical memorabilia. Definition: a rectangular badge representing the 3° Battaglione Monte Assietta of the Divisione Taurinese, formed in 1915 for the operation on Monte Nero.

Compact and display-ready, this badge suits collectors of military history, tactical gear displays, and public exhibitions. It is sought after by collectors and may be available in limited quantity.

Main features

Clear iconography and compact dimensions make this badge easy to store or display.

- Historical design: Rectangular badge showing a black feather with a green tassel, a green number 3, and a snowy mountain peak in the background.
- Provenance: Linked to the 3° Battaglione Monte Assietta of the Divisione Taurinese, formed in 1915 for the Monte Nero action.
- Durable construction: Made from materials intended to resist handling and display over time.
- Compact size: Dimensions: 3.2 cm width x 4.0 cm height.
- Collector value: Suitable for military surplus collections, tactical memorabilia, and museum displays.
- Limited availability: Harder to find, so demand among collectors is often high.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: use this badge as a collectible item for display in a collection, shadowbox, or museum exhibit. It is not presented here as functional duty gear.

In most cases, collectors keep this badge as a historical piece or show it in themed displays alongside other military surplus and tactical memorabilia. It is appropriate for private collections, exhibitions, and educational displays about World War I-era units.

Care and notes

Handle and store the badge to preserve its condition and historical value.

- Keep in a dry, temperature-stable environment away from direct sunlight.
- Avoid abrasive cleaners; clean gently with a soft, dry cloth if needed.
- Handle by the edges to reduce wear to the painted details.
- Check available stock before ordering, as quantities are limited.
