- Material: sturdy metal construction for long-lasting appearance.
- Design: eagle clutching mountain peaks with the Bolzano heraldic shield shown inside a crumpled-style escutcheon.
- Attachment: rear pin-back for easy fastening to fabric or display boards.
- Size: 3.5 cm (W) x 4.5 cm (H) — compact and wearable.
- Use: suitable for collectors, uniform display, military surplus sets, or tactical gear presentation.
- Availability: limited quantities make it a sought-after collector's piece.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: pin the badge onto jackets, uniforms, caps or a display board using the rear pin. It works well for display cases, uniform restoration, or as part of a military surplus collection.

In most cases, place the badge through medium-weight fabric or onto a backing card for display to prevent fabric damage. It is also a suitable collectible or gift for someone interested in Alpine Corps history or tactical memorabilia.

Care and notes

Basic care will preserve the badge's detail and finish; handle gently and store in a dry place.

- Clean with a soft, dry cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners or strong chemicals.
- Be careful when pinning to thin or delicate fabrics—use a protective backing if needed.
- Small parts and a sharp pin: keep out of reach of children.
- Limited availability: quantities are restricted, so check current stock before purchasing.
