Product overview

Plastic shoulder boards (alamari) for the Carabinieri camouflage uniform with an olive green border, designed for ranks such as Appuntati, Brigadieri and Marescialli. These removable rank insignia are intended for duty use on tactical and police-style uniforms.

Definition: A shoulder board (alamaro) is a small, removable insignia piece that attaches to the uniform with rear Velcro. The alamari feature the Carabinieri five-pointed star with a white border and measure 4.5 cm wide by 2 cm high.

Main features

Durable, easy-to-fit plastic alamari that match the olive-green edged camouflage and standard Carabinieri insignia styling.

- Iconic five-pointed star with white border, matching Carabinieri uniform design.
- Size: 4.5 cm width × 2 cm height — designed for a neat fit on camouflage uniforms.
- Rear Velcro attachment for quick application and removal.
- Made from resistant plastic to maintain appearance during regular use.
- Intended for Appuntati, Brigadieri, Marescialli and other eligible Carabinieri ranks.
- Available under restricted sale conditions to ensure correct use and compliance.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Attach the alamaro to the shoulder area of the camouflage uniform by aligning the Velcro backing and pressing firmly. The Velcro allows fast switching between dress and duty setups.

In most cases, these alamari are used during daily duty, tactical operations, or formal service where rank must be visible on military or police-style uniform. Collectors may purchase under specific legal conditions described below.

Care and notes

Basic care keeps the alamari functional and looking correct; store them dry and avoid harsh chemicals that could damage the plastic or Velcro.

- Clean with a damp cloth; avoid solvents and abrasive cleaners.
- Keep Velcro free of lint to maintain secure attachment.
- Sale is reserved for Carabinieri personnel — purchase requires submission of a service ID or delivery to a barracks/command station address.
- Collectors must provide the prefectoral license required by Article 28 of the TULPS to complete the purchase.

FAQ

Q: Who can purchase these alamari?

A: Only serving members of the Arma dei Carabinieri can purchase them directly, subject to ID verification. Delivery can also be arranged to a barracks or command station.

Q: What are the exact dimensions?

A: Each alamaro measures 4.5 cm in width and 2 cm in height, sized to fit standard camouflage uniform shoulder areas without restricting movement.

Q: How are the alamari attached to the uniform?

A: They use a rear Velcro strip for quick attachment and removal, allowing you to change or remove them as needed for duty or storage.

Q: What material are they made from?

A: The alamari are made of durable plastic designed to keep a clean appearance during normal use on tactical or duty uniforms.

Q: Can a private collector buy these alamari?

A: Yes, collectors may purchase them only after providing the prefectoral license required under Article 28 of the TULPS. This verifies legal possession for collectors.

Q: What documentation is needed to complete the order?

A: Serving Carabinieri must supply a copy of their service ID; alternatively, indicate a barracks/command station as the delivery address. Collectors must supply the Article 28 TULPS license.

Tip: Choose the correct variant and double-check the size before ordering; browse related tactical and military surplus accessories to complete your uniform professionally and in line with service requirements.
