Product overview

The Soggolo Colonnello Comandante di Corpo Esercito GdF is a ceremonial uniform cord worn by Colonel Commanders of the Esercito (Army) and the Guardia di Finanza. It is intended for serving military personnel and denotes senior rank on dress and duty uniforms.

Definition: the soggolo is a gold, twisted cord worn at the temple area of the uniform to indicate rank. Sales are restricted: purchase requires proof of service or delivery to a barracks, and collectors must supply a prefectural license under art. 28 TULPS.

Main features

Made to military appearance standards, this soggolo combines precise dimensions and rank detailing for a formal, service-ready look suitable for ceremonial, duty, and official occasions.

- Elegantly designed: gold twisted cord with a refined, authoritative appearance.
- Exact dimensions: two twisted ends, 5 mm diameter each, total height 10 mm.
- Rank stripes (galloncini): three gold ribbons edged in red, applied on each side at temple height.
- Quality materials: manufactured to retain shape and appearance over time.
- Sale restrictions: reserved for Esercito and Guardia di Finanza personnel; collectors require an art. 28 TULPS license.

How to use / When it’s useful

Use the soggolo with dress and formal duty uniforms to signify the rank of Colonnello Comandante di Corpo during inspections, parades, and official ceremonies. It is positioned at the temple area of the uniform as part of standard insignia placement.

Quick answer: wear it on formal and representational occasions to show rank. In most cases, purchase and delivery require verification of military status or delivery to the unit’s barracks.

Care and notes

Keep the soggolo clean and stored flat or on a padded support to preserve twist and finish. Handle carefully to avoid crushing the cord or fraying the galloncini.

- Store in a dry, cool place away from direct sunlight to prevent discoloration.
- Gently brush or wipe with a soft, dry cloth; avoid solvents or abrasive cleaners.
- Sale restricted: provide a copy of military ID or specify barracks as delivery address.
- Collectors: include prefectural license per art. 28 TULPS when ordering.

FAQ

Q: Who can buy the Soggolo Colonnello Comandante di Corpo Esercito GdF?

A: Only serving personnel of the Guardia di Finanza and the Esercito may purchase this item, subject to verification of service status.

Q: What documents are required to complete an order?

A: You must send a copy of your military ID or provide the unit/barracks address as the delivery location. Collectors must provide the prefectural license required by art. 28 TULPS.

Q: What are the exact dimensions of the soggolo?

A: The cord consists of two twisted ends, each 5 mm in diameter, giving a total height of 10 mm. The rank stripes are three gold ribbons edged in red.
