How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: fasten the rosette to a lapel, buttonhole or suitable fabric edge using the rear clamp; no special tools required. It sits discreetly on civilian suits and jackets for formal events.

In most cases, wear it at chest level on the left lapel for standard ceremonial placement. It is useful for official ceremonies, formal receptions, collectors' displays, and can complement police or tactical presentation uniforms.

Care and notes

Basic care keeps the rosette looking its best and preserves the silk and enamel finish.

- Keep away from moisture and heavy soiling; avoid machine washing or submerging in water.
- Spot clean gently with a soft, dry or slightly damp cloth; do not rub the enamel.
- Do not iron directly over the rosette; protect silk from heat and steam.
- Store in the supplied box to prevent crushing and light exposure.
- Limited quantity available; purchase soon if needed for an event or collection.
