Product overview

The Nastrino Alluvione Piemonte 1994 Vigili del Fuoco is a commemorative ribbon for members of the Corpo Nazionale dei Vigili del Fuoco who took part in rescue operations during the November 1994 Piedmont flood. It is intended for uniformed personnel and verified recipients; it recognizes service and sacrifice during that emergency.

Definition: the Nastrino Alluvione Piemonte 1994 Vigili del Fuoco is a 37 mm commemorative ribbon issued to firefighters who participated in the 1994 flood response. This item also appeals to collectors of tactical and military surplus memorabilia, though sales are restricted to eligible personnel.

Main features

Simple, regulated design with options to suit ceremonial or daily duty wear.

- Two yellow sectors: symbolic color representing courage, protection and civil defense.
- Regulation size: available exclusively in 37 mm format to meet uniform standards.
- Two style options: flat regulation finish or slightly domed "Elite" variant for a refined look.
- Attachment choices: rear clamp or rear screws for quick fit or more permanent mounting.
- Multi-place mounting: can be mounted on metal ribbon bars with two or more positions for combined display.
- Restricted availability: sale limited to personnel who can prove service in the 1994 flood operations.

How to use / When it’s useful

Wear the ribbon on the uniform for daily duty, formal ceremonies, or commemorative events. Choose the flat version for standard uniforms and the slightly domed Elite for formal or display use.

Quick answer: use the clamp attachment for ease of removal and use screws if you want a fixed, secure fit. In most cases, order the 37 mm size to ensure proper placement with other official decorations and to comply with Corpo Nazionale dei Vigili del Fuoco standards.

Care and notes

Maintain the ribbon’s appearance by storing it with other decorations and handling it according to uniform care rules. Keep documentation ready if purchase verification is required.

- Store dry and flat to avoid deformation of the ribbon finish.
- Choose the attachment type (clamp or screws) based on how often you will remove it.
- Proof of service or identification is required to purchase; sales are limited to eligible Vigili del Fuoco personnel.
- Availability is limited; custom mounting on metal bars may affect delivery time.

FAQ

Q: Who can buy the Nastrino Alluvione Piemonte 1994?

A: Purchase is limited to members of the Corpo Nazionale dei Vigili del Fuoco who participated in the 1994 flood operations. Verification of service or identification is required.

Q: What size is the ribbon?

A: The ribbon is available exclusively in the 37 mm regulatory format to match official uniform standards and to be worn with other decorations.

Q: Which variants are offered?

A: Two visual variants are available: the flat regulation format for everyday and ceremonial wear, and the slightly domed "Elite" variant for a more three-dimensional, polished appearance.

Q: What rear attachments can I choose?

A: You can select between a clamp-style rear attachment for quick fitting or a screw-type attachment for a more permanent, secure mount.

Q: Can the ribbon be mounted with others?

A: Yes. The ribbon can be placed on metal ribbon bars with two or more positions so multiple decorations are displayed neatly and formally.

Q: How do I prove my eligibility to buy?

A: Acceptable proof includes a copy of your identification badge, a service attestation, or specifying the delivery to your official Comando for direct verification. Sellers will confirm documentation before approving the sale.

Tip: When ordering, select the attachment and variant that match your uniform and display needs. Consider the flat option for daily duty and the Elite variant for formal display; also check related ceremonial and mounting accessories to complete your set.
