Product overview

The Marina Militare Heraldic Cufflinks are a pair of fire-enamelled cufflinks designed for naval enthusiasts, collectors, and anyone needing a refined touch for formal or duty wear. Definition: These are two enamelled cufflinks bearing the Marina Militare heraldic coat of arms, combining historical symbolism with practical use.

They suit formal shirts, uniform dress, and collectors of military surplus or tactical-style accessories, offering a discreet emblem of Italy's maritime history and a licensed, authentic design.

Main features

Clear, durable design with accurate heraldic detail and compact dimensions for everyday or ceremonial wear.

- Heraldic design: Features the Marina Militare coat of arms with emblems of Venice, Genoa, Amalfi and Pisa.
- Fire-enamelled finish: Enamelled at high temperature for lasting color and resistance.
- High-quality materials: Made from premium components for long life and reliable appearance.
- Compact size: 9 mm width × 15 mm height—discreet yet visible on a French cuff.
- Licensed product: Produced under commercial license to ensure design authenticity.

How to use / When it's useful

Quick answer: Wear them on French-cuff shirts for formal events, naval uniforms, police or duty dress, or as a collector's display item. They work well with both civilian formal wear and military/tactical-style outfits.

In most cases, these cufflinks are best for dress occasions, presentations, ceremonies, or as a thoughtful gift for someone interested in military surplus, tactical gear, or naval history. Their compact size keeps them suitable for everyday formal use without being obtrusive.

Care and notes

Basic care will keep the enamel and metal looking their best while preserving the heraldic details.

- Wipe with a soft, dry cloth after use to remove oils and dirt.
- Avoid abrasive cleaners, strong chemicals, and hard impacts to protect the enamel.
- Store in a dry, padded box to prevent scratches and tarnish.
- Limited quantities available—product made under commercial license.

FAQ

Q: What material are the cufflinks made of?

A: The cufflinks are made from quality metal components and finished with fire-enamel for color and protection. The exact alloy is not specified.

Q: What are the cufflink dimensions?

A: Each cufflink measures 9 mm in width and 15 mm in height, making them discreet yet visible on a French cuff.

Q: Is the heraldic emblem authentic?

A: Yes. The design reproduces the Marina Militare heraldic coat of arms and includes the emblems of Venice, Genoa, Amalfi and Pisa, produced under license for accuracy.

Q: Are these cufflinks suitable for uniform or duty wear?

A: They are suitable for formal uniforms and ceremonial dress. Check any specific unit regulations before wearing them on official-duty occasions.

Q: Are the cufflinks durable for regular use?

A: The fire-enamel finish and quality materials provide good durability for regular formal use, but avoid hard impacts and chemical exposure to protect the enamel.

Q: How can I purchase them?

A: Add the item to your cart on the product page to secure your pair. Note that quantities are limited, so availability can change.

Tip: Choose the right variant or packaging if offered and consider browsing related naval, military surplus, or tactical-themed accessories to complete a coordinated formal or collector set.
