Product overview

The Medaglia Gala Albania is a commemorative gala medal designed for collectors, military history enthusiasts, and those interested in military surplus or tactical memorabilia. It represents a historical event linked to operations in Albania and is suitable for display or collection.

Definition: a commemorative gala medal with a crimson ribbon accented by the Italian tricolour, produced to mark the Albania operation.

Main features

Compact, well-made, and historically meaningful, this medal is a collectible item for museums, private collections, or duty and police memorabilia displays.

- Design: Commemorative cross suspended from a crimson ribbon with the Italian tricolour.
- Variant detail: This version does not have the cartouche bearing the word "Albania," making it a rarer variant.
- Materials: Made from durable materials intended to retain appearance over time.
- Size: Standard commemorative diameter of about 4 cm.
- Certificate: Supplied with a certificate of authenticity confirming origin and historical context.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Use the Medaglia Gala Albania as a display piece in a collection, a historical exhibit, or as a thoughtful gift for collectors and history enthusiasts. It works well on a shelf, in a display case, or mounted in an album.

In most cases, the medal is purchased by collectors of military surplus, tactical gear memorabilia, and duty/police-related items who want a tangible piece of operational history. Limited availability makes it a considered addition for serious collectors.

Care and notes

Store and handle the medal to preserve its appearance and historical value. Follow these basic care tips:

- Keep in a dry place away from direct sunlight to prevent fading of the ribbon and finish.
- Store flat or in a protective case to avoid scratches or bends to the ribbon and cross.
- Handle with clean hands or gloves to reduce oils or tarnishing.
- Note: the lack of the "Albania" cartouche is a characteristic of this variant and not a defect.
