Product overview

The Distintivo 5° Battaglione Paracadutisti El Alamein is a commemorative burnished silver metal badge that honors the paratroopers who fought at El Alamein during World War II. It is designed for military history collectors, veterans, reenactors, and tactical or military surplus enthusiasts who want a compact, displayable symbol of service and sacrifice.

Definition: this is a 2 cm (width) x 3 cm (height) burnished silver metal badge made as a commemorative and collectible emblem. It serves as a tangible reminder of the courage shown by the 5° Battaglione Paracadutisti and related units during the battle.

Main features

Simple, durable design with historical styling suitable for wearing or display.

- Material: burnished silver metal (metallo argentato brunito) for a vintage look and durability.
- Compact size: 2 cm (width) x 3 cm (height), easy to mount or display.
- Historical design: faithful styling that reflects the El Alamein context and period.
- Commemorative value: honors the paratroopers of the 5° Battaglione and the Folgore division.
- Collector appeal: sought after by military surplus, tactical gear, and history collectors.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: wear it on a jacket, hat, or display board, or keep it in a collection box as a historical collectible. It is suitable for everyday display or special commemorative events.

In most cases, collectors use the badge for historical displays, uniforms in reenactment, or as a desk or shadow-box item. It is useful for anyone wanting a small, durable emblem that represents the 5° Battaglione Paracadutisti El Alamein and the broader story of Folgore’s resistance.

Care and notes

Basic care keeps the badge looking its best and preserves its commemorative value.

- Wipe gently with a soft, dry cloth to remove dust; avoid abrasive cleaners.
- Keep dry and store in a cool, dry place to prevent corrosion or tarnish.
- Designed for commemorative use—suitable for wear or display, not an official service item.
- Limited quantities are available; consider ordering promptly if you wish to add it to a collection.

FAQ

Q: What are the exact dimensions of the badge?

A: The badge measures 2 cm in width and 3 cm in height.

Q: What material is the badge made from?

A: It is made of burnished silver metal (metallo argentato brunito), chosen for a durable, period-appropriate finish.

Q: Is this badge an official military insignia?

A: No. It is a commemorative and collectible badge intended to honor the 5° Battaglione Paracadutisti El Alamein and related units, not an official service emblem for active duty use.

Q: Can I wear the badge on clothing or gear?

A: Yes. The compact size makes it suitable for jackets, caps, or display boards. Attach with care to avoid fabric damage.

Q: Why is this badge historically significant?

A: The badge commemorates the paratroopers who fought at El Alamein, including the notable resistance of the Folgore and the actions associated with the Divisione Corazzata Ariete during that campaign.

Q: Is the badge limited edition or widely available?

A: Availability is limited and demand is strong among collectors of military surplus, tactical gear, and history memorabilia. We recommend ordering soon if you want to secure one.

Tip: Choose the right item for your collection or display—check size and finish before ordering—and browse related military surplus and tactical collector items to complete your set.
