Product overview

The Gold Embroidered Alpini Badge for Norvegese Alpina is a high-quality embroidered badge intended for members of the Alpini corps and collectors of military surplus. It is made to be worn on the Norvegese Alpina jacket and suits tactical, military surplus, and duty uniform use.

Definition: a gold-thread embroidered fregio (badge) on khaki cloth, representing Alpini insignia for use on Norvegese Alpina garments.

Main features

Clear, durable construction and traditional Alpini symbolism make this badge suitable for uniform wear and display.

- Distinctive design: An eagle in a low flight clutching a disc with the regiment number, set over a trumpet and crossed rifles.
- Material: Embroidered in gold canutiglia thread on khaki cloth for an authentic look.
- Adopted use: Used by Ufficiali, Sottufficiali and Volontari in Servizio Permanente of the Alpini.
- Size: 7 cm width x 6 cm height — sized to fit a Norvegese Alpina without bulk.
- Personalization: Available with or without the regiment numeral; select the option and enter the numeral when ordering.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Designed to be attached to a Norvegese Alpina jacket (placement follows unit rules or personal preference). In most cases, it is sewn or affixed to the jacket where insignia are normally worn.

This fregio is useful for active Alpini personnel, ceremonial uniforms, collectors of military surplus, and those updating tactical or duty garments. Follow your unit’s regulations for official placement and use.

Care and notes

Simple care and attention will help preserve the gold thread and cloth backing.

- Follow the cleaning instructions of the jacket to avoid damage to the embroidery.
- Avoid aggressive washing or abrasive treatments to protect the canutiglia thread.
- Check unit regulations before wearing if you are in active service; purchase only if authorized to use the insignia.
- Limited stock: availability is restricted due to production and material choices.
