Product overview

The Nastrino Encomio Onore 2ª Assegnazione Consiglio Comunale Puglia is an official municipal ribbon awarded to members of the Polizia Locale in the Puglia region for exceptional service, courage and dedication. Definition: this is a ceremonial police ribbon used as a formal sign of recognition by a municipal council.

This ribbon is intended for Polizia Locale personnel such as the Comandante, Vicecomandante, Ruolo Commissario, Ispettori and other qualified officers. It is a visible symbol of merit and municipal appreciation conferred through local authority procedures.

Main features

Clear, regulation-style ribbon with options to match uniform display and mounting preference.

- Design: red ribbon with a central white stripe, mounted with a six-pointed bronze star at the center.
- Variants: standard flat regulation finish or slightly domed "Elite" finish.
- Attachment options: choose rear clamps or screw fastenings for secure mounting.
- Display: can be mounted on ribbon bars with two or more places for grouped presentation.
- Intended use: awarded by the municipal council and used for formal recognition and uniform wear.
- Stock note: limited quantities available; demand is high among duty and police recognition items.

How to use / When it’s useful

Use this nastrino for formal award ceremonies, annual evaluations, and official uniform display following municipal conferment. Select the attachment type that matches your uniform’s ribbon bar and confirm mounting position with your unit’s dress regulations.

Quick answer: this ribbon is for formal municipal recognition of Polizia Locale personnel. In most cases, the Mayor or the municipal administration formally issues the award—confirm the conferment procedure with your local authority before wearing the ribbon.

Care and notes

Basic care keeps the ribbon presentable and compliant with uniform standards; observe municipal rules for official use and display.

- Store flat in a dry place to avoid creasing or deformation.
- Clean gently with a soft, dry cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners or soaking.
- Choose the correct rear attachment (clamps or screws) to match your ribbon bar and uniform.
- Intended for official award recipients; check local regulations before display or public use.

FAQ

Q: Who can receive the Nastrino Encomio Onore 2ª Assegnazione?

A: The ribbon is intended for Polizia Locale personnel in the Puglia region, including Comandante, Vicecomandante, Ruolo Commissario, Ispettori and other qualified officers. Conferment follows municipal procedures.

Q: What does the ribbon look like and what does it mean?

A: It is a red ribbon with a central white stripe and a six-pointed bronze star. It symbolizes municipal recognition for meritorious service, courage and dedication.

Q: Which variants and attachments are available?

A: Available in a flat regulation finish or a slightly domed "Elite" finish. Rear attachments can be ordered with clamps or screws and you can mount it on multi-place ribbon bars.

Q: Who confers the ribbon?

A: The Consiglio Comunale (municipal council) issues the award; for the Comandante the Mayor typically formulates the conferment, while the municipal administration handles other recipients.

Q: Is the ribbon available to buy outside official awards?

A: The item is offered as a physical ribbon, but its use as an official award is governed by municipal rules. Verify eligibility and authorization with your local administration before wearing.

Q: What should I select when ordering?

A: Choose the finish (flat or Elite) and the rear attachment (clamps or screws) that match your ribbon bar and uniform rules. If unsure, check with your unit’s dress regulations or contact your administration.

Tip: Pick the finish and attachment that match your uniform and intended use, and consider mounting on a multi-place ribbon bar for formal presentation; browse related police and duty recognition items to complete your display.
