Product overview

Long wool socks in nut color designed for users who need warm, durable footwear for daily wear, duty or uniform use. They suit personnel wearing Esercito uniforms as well as civilians looking for a reliable pair of tactical or military surplus-style socks.

Definition: Long ribbed socks made from 70% virgin wool and 30% acrylic fiber for natural insulation and improved durability.

Main features

Reliable, comfortable socks built for regular use with reinforced stress points and a secure top band.

- Material: 70% Virgin Wool, 30% Acrylic Fiber for warmth and resilience.
- Extra-soft ribbed knit: Comfortable fit and gentle compression along the leg.
- Reinforced heel and toe: Added durability where wear is greatest.
- Elastic top band: Secure hold to reduce slipping during movement.
- Versatile use: Suitable for Esercito uniforms, duty wear, tactical applications or everyday civilian use.

How to use / When it’s useful

These socks are ideal for cold-weather use, layered under boots for patrols, hikes or long shifts. They also work well with formal or casual civilian footwear when extra warmth is needed.

Quick answer: Wear them under combat or work boots for added insulation and comfort. In most cases, they are suitable for daily use, duty shifts, and outdoor activities where warmth and durability matter.

Care and notes

Simple care keeps the socks soft and extends their service life. Follow these basic washing suggestions.

- Hand wash or use a machine delicate cycle.
- Use cold water and a mild detergent.
- Air dry to help preserve shape and fibers.
