Product overview

The Reichsleiter armband is a high-quality historical reproduction intended for collectors, museums, reenactors, and those interested in military surplus and historical insignia. It reproduces the armband worn by senior national party officials during the period, kept here for study and display.

Definition: This is a faithful reproduction of the Reichsleiter armband, made in red?purple wool with gold embroidery and a central white cotton disk bearing a period swastika motif.

Main features

Carefully made to reflect the original appearance, this armband is suitable for display, research, and historical collections in military surplus and tactical memorabilia.

- Authentic reproduction: Faithful reproduction of the armband used by senior party leaders such as Goebbels, Himmler, Bormann, and Röhm.
- Materials: Red?purple wool body with gold edging and gold wire embroidery on the emblem disk in white cotton.
- Decorative details: Two embroidered lines of oak leaves at the ends and a gold?outlined swastika centered on a diadem motif.
- Size: Single size — 40 cm width (open) x 11.5 cm height.
- Collector appeal: Limited availability increases interest among collectors and historical enthusiasts.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Use the armband for display, archival collections, reenactment, or educational exhibits where accurate period insignia are required. It is not intended for modern tactical or duty use.

In most cases, collectors place the armband in a frame, on a mannequin, or in a display case to preserve the embroidery and wool fabric. The piece works well alongside other military surplus items and period artifacts for a clear historical presentation.

Care and notes

Handle the armband with care to protect the wool and metallic embroidery. Store it flat or on a padded form away from direct light and moisture.

- Keep in a dry, cool place to avoid moth or mildew damage.
- Avoid strong rubbing or washing; spot clean gently if needed.
- Contains historical symbols and is offered for study, display, and collecting purposes.
