4th Alpini Paratroopers Regiment Insignia Mai Strack

Product price:

€5.50 tax included

Product codes:

Reference: Art. 2341
EAN13: 0658606573185
UPC: 658606573185

Product features:

Product short description:

The 4° Reggimento Alpini Paracadutisti Mai Strack badge is a finely made emblem for collectors, veterans and military history enthusiasts. It honors the tradition and courage of the Alpini Paracadutisti and is suitable for display or wearing.

- Material: Made from high-quality materials with careful craftsmanship.
- Use: Wear on uniforms or jackets, or display in a collection or shadowbox.
- Design: Detailed artwork that reflects regimental heritage and pride.
- Condition: Collector-grade item finished to a high standard.

Product description:

Product overview

This is a metal enamelled badge of the 4° Reggimento Alpini Paracadutisti "Monte Cervino" with the motto "Mai Strack" — made for collectors, military enthusiasts, and anyone who displays tactical or military surplus items. Definition: a small, decorative enamel metal insignia representing the regiment’s symbol and motto.

The badge honours the regiment’s airborne alpine tradition and is suitable for display on jackets, caps, collector boards, or as part of a duty or police-themed collection. It combines historical symbolism with a durable, brunito enamel finish.

Main features

Compact, well-made badge with clear regimental symbols and durable finish.

- Material: Brunito enamelled metal for long-lasting appearance.
- Design: Central flying eagle clutching the motto "Mai Strack" with a stylized parachute in the background.
- Size: 4.2 cm width x 3.9 cm height.
- Finish: Darkened (brunito) enamel to resist wear while keeping detail visible.
- Use cases: Ideal for collectors, tactical and military surplus displays, or as a commemorative accessory.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: wear it as a lapel or cap badge, attach it to a display board, or keep it in a collection box for historical display. The badge works well as a visual tribute to the regiment’s identity and traditions.

In most cases, collectors use it for display, reenactment accessories, or as a keepsake. It pairs naturally with tactical jackets, military surplus gear, or themed collections focused on airborne and mountain units.

Care and notes

Basic care preserves the enamel and metal finish and ensures the badge remains a durable collectible.

- Clean gently with a soft, dry cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners or strong chemicals.
- Keep dry and store in a padded box or display case to prevent scratches.
- Check the fastening before wearing to avoid loss; secure pin mechanisms if fitted.

FAQ

Q: What material is the badge made of?

A: The badge is made of metal with a brunito enamel finish, chosen for durability and a traditional appearance. The finish helps resist normal wear and keeps the design clear.

Q: What are the exact dimensions?

A: The badge measures 4.2 cm in width and 3.9 cm in height. Its compact size suits lapels, caps, and display boards.

Q: What does the eagle symbol represent?

A: The eagle represents strength, vision, and high-altitude capability, reflecting the airborne alpine character of the regiment.

Q: What does the motto "Mai Strack" mean?

A: "Mai Strack" literally translates to "Never Tired" and refers to the regiment’s resilience and commitment. The historical origin of the added "K" remains unclear and is part of its tradition.

Q: Is this badge suitable for everyday wear or for uniforms?

A: The badge is suitable as an accessory on civilian outerwear, caps, or display pieces. If you intend to use it with official uniforms, follow your organization’s regulations.

Q: Where can I find matching items or related military surplus pieces?

A: Look for specialist military surplus retailers and collector shops that offer regimental insignia, patches, and display accessories to build a coordinated collection.

Tip: Choose the variant or placement that fits your collection or clothing (lapel, cap, or display). Browse related insignia, patches, and display cases to complete a neat, historically respectful setup.

Product attributes:

Product gallery:

