Product overview

The Distintivo di Promozione per Merito Straordinario is a prestigious promotion badge for Polizia di Stato personnel recognized for extraordinary merit during their service. Definition: a small gold?colored promotion badge awarded to members of the Polizia di Stato for outstanding service.

This badge is aimed at active Polizia di Stato officers and qualified collectors; it appears on duty uniforms and is also sought after in military surplus and police memorabilia circles. Availability is limited and sale is subject to verification of eligibility.

Main features

Compact, symbolic and crafted for formal uniform wear, the badge conveys authority and recognition while remaining discreet on duty attire.

- Material: gold?colored metal (metallo dorato).
- Design: crossed swords and an aquila turrita (turreted eagle) with claws aligned to the sword hilts.
- Size: 1.9 cm length × 1.5 cm height — small but noticeable on the uniform.
- Intended use: worn by Polizia di Stato personnel as a mark of extraordinary merit.
- Collectible: available to licensed collectors under prefectoral license ex art. 28 TULPS.

How to use / When it’s useful

Wear the badge on your uniform following your department’s uniform rules; it serves as a visible sign of recognition and professional commitment on duty. For collectors, the badge is a display piece for a police or military surplus collection.

Quick answer: Wear it where badges are normally placed according to your service dress regulations. In most cases, follow your unit’s guidance for placement, documentation and authorized use to remain compliant with duty and uniform policies.

Care and notes

Basic care will keep the badge in good condition whether worn on duty or stored in a collection. Observe purchase requirements and handling to protect authenticity and compliance.

- Store in a dry place and avoid abrasive cleaners or harsh chemicals.
- Handle carefully to prevent scratches on the metal finish.
- Sale reserved to Polizia di Stato personnel or collectors with the prefectoral license (ex art. 28 TULPS).
- Purchase requires verification: provide your service ID card or complete the attestation requested through our site contact form.
- Limited availability—stock is restricted and subject to eligibility checks.

FAQ

Q: Who can buy the Distintivo di Promozione per Merito Straordinario?

A: Only active Polizia di Stato personnel and collectors who hold a prefectoral license under ex art. 28 TULPS are eligible to purchase this badge.

Q: What documents are required to complete the purchase?

A: You must provide a valid Polizia di Stato service ID or an attestation of membership. Collectors must present the prefectoral license as proof of authorization.

Q: What are the badge dimensions?

A: The badge measures 1.9 cm in length and 1.5 cm in height, designed to be discreet yet clearly identifiable on the uniform.

Q: What material is the badge made from?

A: The badge is made from gold?colored metal (described in Italian as "metallo dorato"), giving it a formal, durable finish suitable for uniform wear.

Q: How do I submit verification documents for purchase?

A: Upload or send your service ID or attestation as requested during checkout or via the contact form on the website. Our team will verify eligibility before confirming the order.

Q: Is this badge collectible or intended only for active duty?

A: It is primarily intended for Polizia di Stato personnel as a mark of merit, but verified collectors with the required license may acquire it as a collectible item.

Tip: Before ordering, confirm your eligibility and the correct variant or option if available. Browse related police, tactical and military surplus items to find matching uniform accessories and display options.
