Product overview

The Scultura Penna Alpina Edelweiss su Roccia is a handcrafted wrought-iron sculpture that combines alpine symbolism with decorative function, designed for collectors, military surplus and tactical memorabilia enthusiasts, lodges, and display spaces. It suits buyers who value artisan metalwork and alpine or duty/police-themed decor.

Definition: a handworked wrought-iron sculpture featuring a removable alpine piton-style pen and an edelweiss motif set on a rocky base.

Main features

Simple, durable construction and a distinctive alpine design make this sculpture suitable for display in homes, offices, clubs, or collection cabinets.

- Material: handworked wrought iron for long-lasting structure.
- Design: alpine pen (double-hook piton style) with an adjacent edelweiss flower motif.
- Removable pen: the pen pulls out and rests with its quill in a ring set into the rock base.
- Dimensions: alpine pen 36 x 8 cm; total sculpture 42 x 9 cm.
- Symbolism: represents the climber’s grip on rock and the alpine environment.
- Suitable for collectors: appeals to military surplus, tactical, duty and police memorabilia collectors.

How to use / When it’s useful

Use the sculpture as a display piece on a shelf, desk, mantel, or in a collection case. It works well as a commemorative item for alpine units, veteran groups, or anyone interested in mountain and tactical themes.

Quick answer: it is primarily a decorative display sculpture with a removable pen for easy cleaning. In most cases, buyers place it indoors to preserve the metalwork and detail.

Care and notes

Basic care will keep the sculpture looking its best; the removable pen makes cleaning easier and helps protect delicate details.

- Wipe with a soft, dry or slightly damp cloth; avoid harsh chemicals.
- Keep indoors or in a dry display area to prevent moisture-related wear.
- Handle the removable pen gently to avoid bending or misalignment.

FAQ

Q: What are the sculpture’s dimensions?

A: The alpine pen measures 36 x 8 cm and the complete sculpture measures 42 x 9 cm. These dimensions are suitable for shelves and display cases.

Q: What material is the sculpture made of?

A: It is made of handworked wrought iron (ferro battuto lavorato), chosen for its durability and traditional metalworking appearance.

Q: Is the pen removable?

A: Yes, the pen is removable and rests with its quill in a ring on the rock base. Removing it makes cleaning and careful handling easier.

Q: What does the sculpture symbolize?

A: The double-hook alpine pen represents the rock a climber holds onto, while the edelweiss evokes high-mountain beauty and resilience—common themes for alpine and duty-related memorabilia.

Q: Is this item a limited edition?

A: The sculpture is offered in limited quantities and is sought after by collectors; availability can vary, so consider purchasing if the item matches your needs.

Q: Can this sculpture be used outdoors?

A: It is intended primarily for indoor display. Prolonged outdoor exposure to moisture or weather may affect the wrought iron over time.
