Product overview

The Maglione Blu Aeronautica Militare V-neck sweater is a navy duty sweater used by members of the Aeronautica Militare and offered to civilians seeking durable, service-style knitwear. It is suitable for military personnel, police, tactical users, and anyone who wants a practical military surplus-style sweater for everyday or formal wear.

Definition: a V-neck wool-blend sweater with shoulder epaulets and reinforced details designed for warmth, durability, and rank display.

Main features

Smart, practical design with technical details for duty and everyday use.

- V-neck style: neat, semi-formal look that layers well over shirts or T-shirts.
- Shoulder epaulets: built-in epaulets protect the front and back of the shoulder and add a robust appearance.
- Fabric appendage under left epaulet: extra reinforcement on the left shoulder area to reduce wear from straps and equipment.
- Velcro panels for tubular rank: secure attachment for rank insignia in operational conditions.
- Pen pocket on left sleeve: practical sleeve pocket for writing instruments during duty.
- Reinforced patches on the back of sleeves: increases durability where abrasion is most common.
- Wool and synthetic blend: breathable knit that balances warmth, shape retention, and long-term use.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: wear it as a duty sweater or as a smart casual garment—it works with uniforms, jeans, or formal trousers. The design is intended for colder seasons or cooler environments where thermal comfort matters.

In most cases, this sweater is used by service personnel who need to display rank and carry small items on the sleeve, but it also fits civilian use for anyone seeking tactical or military surplus styling with functional details.

Care and notes

Follow simple care steps to keep the Maglione Blu Aeronautica Militare looking and performing its best.

- Wash: hand wash or machine wash on a delicate cycle with cold water.
- Dry: do not use a tumble dryer; lay flat or hang to air dry away from direct sunlight.
- Storage: fold and store in a drawer or wardrobe; use protective bags to limit dust if needed.
- Wear warning: avoid exposing Velcro panels to high heat and keep sharp objects away from reinforced patches to prevent damage.

FAQ

Q: What materials are used in the Maglione Blu Aeronautica Militare?

A: The sweater is made from a blend of wool and synthetic fibers to balance warmth, breathability, and shape retention. This mix helps the garment stay durable after repeated use.

Q: Which sizes are available?

A: Available in M, L, XL, and XXL. Size M corresponds to Italian 48/50; L to 52/54; XL to 56; XXL to 60/62. Check measurements for the best fit.

Q: Can I wear this sweater for winter duty?

A: Yes. The wool blend provides effective insulation for cold seasons and cool environments, making it suitable for winter duty or outdoor use.

Q: Are the shoulder epaulets suitable for attaching rank insignia?

A: Yes. The sweater includes a counter-epaulet and Velcro system designed for tubular rank insignia, keeping rank securely in place during active use.

Q: How should I wash and dry the sweater?

A: Hand wash or use a delicate machine cycle with cold water. Do not tumble dry—air dry away from direct sunlight to protect the fabric and shape.

Q: Is this product suitable for civilians who want a military-style garment?

A: Absolutely. It is designed for both service wear and civilian users who prefer tactical or military surplus-style clothing with practical features.

Tip: Choose the size that matches your chest and shoulder measurements for the best fit; consider the layering you plan to do (shirt or jacket). Browse related duty sweaters and tactical items to complete a coordinated uniform or civilian look.
