Italian Naval Academy Cadet Dirk

Product price:

€499.00 tax included

Product codes:

Reference: Art. 2367
EAN13: 0658606573444
UPC: 658606573444

Product features:

Product short description:

Ceremonial spadino for Allievo Cadetto of the Accademia Navale. Suitable as a cadet dress accessory, for parade display, or for collectors of naval academy items.

- Material: See product images and the full description for blade and hilt material details.
- Use: Intended as a ceremonial dress piece for cadet uniforms, parades, or museum and private collections.
- Fit: Standard cadet dress size; consult listed measurements or contact us for sizing information.
- Condition: Condition may vary—refer to photos and item details or request additional images.

Product description:

Product overview

The Spadino Allievo Cadetto Accademia Navale is a ceremonial short sword designed for cadets and trainees at the Accademia Navale di Livorno. It is intended for formal uniform use, parades and academic ceremonies by academy personnel and authorized collectors.

Definition: a 32 cm ceremonial spadino (short sword) for Allievi and Cadetti, combining traditional design with controlled safety features. Suitable for military surplus collections, ceremonial duty, and display in tactical or police memorabilia.

Main features

Quality materials and classic naval styling make this spadino a recognizable part of the Accademia Navale uniform.

- Overall length: 32 cm from tip of the chape to top of the pommel.
- Handle: Gold-colored metal with mother-of-pearl grip panels for a secure, refined hold.
- Sheath: Embossed metal exterior that protects the blade with traditional detailing.
- Blade: Stainless steel without a point to meet academy safety requirements.
- Guard: Classic double-branch guard offering a traditional look and hand protection.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: the spadino is worn with the official uniform, carried under the waterproof overcoat and supported by two straps attached to the belt. It is primarily a ceremonial accessory rather than a combat weapon.

In most cases, cadets use it during formal parades, inspections and academy ceremonies; collectors may display it as part of a military surplus or tactical collection. Its blunted blade improves safety during public events and training presentations.

Care and notes

Keep the spadino clean and stored dry; regular inspection ensures fittings and sheath remain in good condition.

- Store in a dry place and wipe metal parts with a soft cloth to prevent spotting.
- Blade is stainless steel and without a point—designed for safety and conformity with academy rules.
- Purchase restricted: available only to Accademia Navale personnel or collectors with a prefectoral license (ex art. 28 TULPS).
- Delivery time: up to one month to allow careful preparation and quality checks.

FAQ

Q: Who can buy the Spadino Allievo Cadetto Accademia Navale?

A: Purchase is reserved for personnel of the Accademia Navale di Livorno and for collectors who provide a prefectoral license under ex art. 28 TULPS.

Q: What are the spadino’s dimensions?

A: The total length is 32 cm, measured from the tip of the chape to the top of the pommel.

Q: What materials are used?

A: The handle is gold-colored metal with mother-of-pearl panels, the sheath is embossed metal, and the blade is stainless steel without a point.

Q: Is the blade sharp or suitable as a weapon?

A: The blade is stainless steel and intentionally without a pointed tip for safety; it is a ceremonial accessory, not intended for use as a weapon.

Q: How long does delivery take?

A: Delivery is scheduled within one month from the order to allow for careful preparation and inspection of each piece.

Q: How do I prove eligibility to buy?

A: Academy personnel must provide a copy of their military ID or supply a barracks delivery address during registration. Collectors must submit the prefectoral license (ex art. 28 TULPS).

Tip: Choose the correct variant and confirm eligibility documentation before ordering. Browse our related ceremonial and military surplus items to complete your uniform or display set.

Product attributes:

Product gallery: