Product overview

The Pantaloni GUS Grande Uniforme Storica Carabinieri are historical dress trousers designed for members of the Arma dei Carabinieri and for licensed collectors. They reproduce the classic uniform look with modern tailoring for duty wear, ceremonial use, and display in collections.

Definition: These are long, straight black cordellino trousers with a distinctive double red side stripe, made to mirror the traditional Carabinieri uniform. The product is reserved for serving Carabinieri personnel and collectors with the required prefectural license.

Main features

Elegant, service-ready trousers that combine historic style with practical details for daily use by police and duty personnel.

- Historic styling: Double red woollen stripe on each side for authentic appearance.
- Material: Black cordellino fabric offering durability and a formal finish.
- Cut: Long, straight leg without lining for a traditional silhouette.
- Pockets: Small front left pocket, two side pockets and one rear pocket with button closure.
- Fit support: PDF size guide and measurement form available for tailored fit.
- Restricted sale: Available only to Arma dei Carabinieri members and licensed collectors.

How to use / When it’s useful

These trousers are suitable for ceremonial duties, formal patrol uniforms, and historical displays. They work well as part of a full dress kit or for official events where traditional uniform appearance is required.

Quick answer: Use them for formal duty, parades, ceremonies, and museum or collection purposes. In most cases, provide your measurements after purchase (see the size guide) to ensure the correct fit and to meet service requirements.

Care and notes

Basic care preserves the fabric and the red side stripe; follow standard garment care for fine woollen or corded fabrics.

- Dry clean preferred to maintain shape and stripe quality.
- Store folded or hung to avoid creasing of the stripe area.
- Sale requires proof of membership: upload a copy of your military ID during checkout or indicate your command/station when registering.
- Collectors must submit a prefectural license (art. 28 TULPS) to complete purchase.
- Delivery: allow up to 30 working days from order for production and shipment.

FAQ

Q: Who can buy the Pantaloni GUS Grande Uniforme Storica Carabinieri?

A: Purchase is reserved to serving members of the Arma dei Carabinieri and collectors who hold a valid prefectural license under art. 28 TULPS. Proof is required to complete the order.

Q: What material are the trousers made from?

A: The trousers are made from black cordellino fabric with a red woollen side stripe. This provides a formal appearance with durable wear.

Q: How long does delivery take?

A: Delivery is within 30 working days from the order date to allow for production and any required verification steps.

Q: How can I ensure a perfect fit?

A: Download the PDF size guide, select your size, then complete and send the measurement form to info@tuttomilitare.com after purchase for a tailored fit option.

Q: What are the distinctive design features?

A: The key features are the long, straight cut, the double red side stripe in panno, and practical pockets including a rear pocket with button closure.

Q: Can I buy these for everyday tactical or patrol use?

A: These trousers are intended primarily for dress and ceremonial duty rather than rough field use. They are suitable for duty, police ceremonial roles, and collector displays.

Tip: Choose your size carefully and use the measurement form after purchase to ensure the best fit. Also check related duty and ceremonial items in the store to complete your uniform set.
