Definition: a decorative knight’s collar featuring the Jerusalem Cross suspended from a 5 cm silk ribbon. The piece reproduces the emblematic cross of the Order Equestre Santo Sepolcro di Gerusalemme and is offered in two size variants for different uses.

Main features

Carefully crafted to reflect the Order’s symbolism, this collar combines a traditional design with quality finishing for ceremony or display.

- Gold-toned military trophy sits above the cross as a historic reference to the Order’s mission.
- Silk ribbon 5 cm wide with a neat bow at the neck for an elegant presentation.
- Two sizes: Collar format — cross 3.5 cm; Miniature gala — cross 1.3 cm.
- Suitable for collectors and for display among military surplus, tactical or police ceremonial items.
- Produced as a decorative and symbolic piece that reflects the heritage of the Order.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Wear the full collar for visible ceremonial use and choose the miniature gala for formal uniforms, lapels or less conspicuous display. The collar is primarily intended as a ceremonial decoration or collector’s item.

In most cases, the 3.5 cm collar format gives a stronger presence at investitures and public ceremonies, while the 1.3 cm miniature is better suited to gala dress, miniature displays or collections where a subtler piece is preferred.

Care and notes

Keep the collar in a dry, protected place and handle it carefully to preserve the enamel and silk ribbon.

- Avoid prolonged exposure to water, humidity or harsh chemicals to protect the enamel and ribbon.
- Store flat in a padded box or display case to prevent bending or wear.
- Handle by the ribbon rather than gripping the enamel surface to limit fingerprints and scratches.
- Limited stock is available and demand can be high; order promptly if you need a specific size.
