Product overview

The Fascetta Metallo 1940 is a small metal wreath bar intended for collectors, restorers, reenactors and anyone interested in military surplus and historic medals. Definition: it is a metal laurel wreath band stamped with the campaign year "1940", originally fitted to the ribbon of the commemorative 1940–43 medal.

This commemorative fascetta is a visible symbol of the 1940 campaign year and works well as a display or restoration detail for medals, tactical collections, and duty or police museum pieces.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: the fascetta is designed to be fitted onto a medal ribbon as a decorative and commemorative band. It is most commonly used on the 1940–43 commemorative medal ribbon, but can be applied to compatible ribbons and display mounts.

In most cases, the fascetta is used by collectors restoring original groupings, by museums for accurate displays, or by hobbyists adding period detail to tactical or military surplus items. Handle gently when fitting and use alongside a proper ribbon mount or display case.

Care and notes

Basic care will keep the metal fascetta in good condition and protect its finish and inscription.

- Store in a dry place and avoid prolonged exposure to moisture to reduce tarnishing.
- Clean gently with a soft cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners that could damage the finish.
- Each piece is supplied in protective packaging for transport and storage.
- Availability may be limited; check current stock before planning multiple restorations or displays.

FAQ

Q: What are the dimensions of the Fascetta Metallo 1940?

A: The fascetta measures 4 cm in length and 0.6 cm in height. These compact dimensions make it easy to fit on standard medal ribbons.

Q: What material is the fascetta made of?

A: It is made of durable metal designed to hold its shape and inscription over time. The exact metal alloy is not specified in the product listing.

Q: Can the fascetta be applied to other medals?

A: Yes. It was originally used on the 1940–43 commemorative medal ribbon but can be fitted to other compatible ribbons or display mounts of similar width.

Q: Can I buy more than one fascetta?

A: Multiple pieces are available for purchase, subject to current stock. If you need several for a set or display, consider ordering promptly.

Q: Does the fascetta come with special packaging?

A: Yes. Each fascetta is supplied in protective packaging to help preserve its condition during shipping and storage.

Q: Is this an original World War II item?

A: The listing describes the fascetta as a commemorative metal wreath marked "1940." For questions about provenance or original wartime issue, please request specific condition or provenance details from the seller before purchasing.

Tip: Choose the right size and check compatibility with your medal ribbon before ordering; browse related military surplus and collector items to complete your display or restoration without being rushed.
