How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: use the medal as a presentation award, display item, or collectible to honor humanitarian efforts. It works well in formal recognition ceremonies or as part of a curated collection.

In most cases, the medal is used for display in shadow boxes, on presentation stands, or as a formal gift to volunteers and supporters. It suits charity events, museum exhibits, and private collections of military surplus or police memorabilia.

Care and notes

Simple care will keep the medal visually appealing and preserve its condition for display or long-term storage.

- Keep the medal dry and store it in a soft pouch or display case to avoid scratches.
- Clean gently with a soft, dry cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners or chemicals.
- Handle by the edges to reduce fingerprints and surface wear.
- Note: the medal is a commemorative item and not a piece of protective equipment.
