Product overview

The Nastrino da Volontario Addetto al Primo Soccorso is a service ribbon for 118 volunteer first-aid personnel and emergency responders. It is intended for volunteers who take part in frontline first-aid operations and want a formal recognition worn on the uniform or displayed on a ribbon bar.

Definition: a small, symbolic ribbon badge that identifies voluntary first-aid service and commitment. Suitable for duty uniforms, ceremonial wear, or as a meaningful gift for volunteers; also of interest to collectors of tactical and military surplus items.

Main features

Clear, official-style design with traditional color meaning and multiple mounting options to match standard ribbon displays.

- Design: three horizontal bands in yellow, blue and white with a professional look.
- Color meaning: yellow for readiness, blue for professionalism, white for pure intent and service.
- Dimensions: standard width with three horizontal bands of 3 mm each.
- Variants: flat regulation format and a slightly domed “Elite” version for a refined appearance.
- Mounting options: rear single holder available with clamp (morsetti) or screw attachments.
- Multi-ribbon compatibility: can be mounted on multi-place metal ribbon bars to display several awards together.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: wear the ribbon where service ribbons are authorized and follow your local authority or employer rules for placement. The ribbon highlights active participation in first-aid duty and shows public recognition of volunteer service.

In most cases, the ribbon is used on duty uniforms during official events, ceremonies, or when regulations allow ribbon display. It is also useful when mounting multiple recognitions on a single metal ribbon holder for an orderly presentation.

Care and notes

Basic care keeps the ribbon looking professional and preserves its mounting hardware; choose the attachment type that suits your uniform and longevity needs.

- Clean gently with a soft, dry cloth; avoid harsh chemicals or abrasives.
- Choose clamp or screw rear attachment based on how often you remove the ribbon and your uniform fabric.
- If buying as a gift, verify eligibility or assignment rules before purchase.

FAQ

Q: Who can wear the Nastrino da Volontario Addetto al Primo Soccorso?

A: It is intended for 118 volunteers who have completed the required training and actively participate in first-aid operations. Wear is subject to the rules of your service or employer.

Q: Can I personalize the ribbon holder?

A: Yes. You can choose between rear clamp (morsetti) or screw attachments when ordering to match your preference for stability and durability.

Q: What are the ribbon dimensions?

A: The ribbon follows a standard width and features three horizontal bands, each 3 mm wide, arranged in yellow, blue and white.

Q: Can the ribbon be mounted on a multi-place ribbon bar?

A: Yes. The ribbon can be fitted to multi-place metal ribbon holders to display multiple awards together on a single base.

Q: What do the ribbon colors mean?

A: Yellow denotes readiness and quick response, blue represents professionalism and reliability, and white signals pure intent and service to others.

Q: How long does preparation and shipping take?

A: Preparation and shipping typically require 24–48 hours from order, plus standard delivery times. Times may vary during high demand or for personalized mounts.

Tip: Choose the variant and rear attachment that fit your uniform and usage (flat for a regulation look, Elite domed for a refined appearance), and consider mounting options if you plan to display multiple ribbons.
