Product overview

The Soggolo Primo Luogotenente Carica Speciale Carabinieri is a ceremonial uniform band reserved for serving members of the Arma dei Carabinieri. It is intended for duty and ceremonial use by First Lieutenants holding the special charge.

Definition: the soggolo is a ceremonial rank band worn on the uniform to indicate rank and role.

Main features

Clean, formal design and durable materials suitable for police and military duty or for verified collectors who hold the required permit.

- Distinctive design: silver-colored ribbon with a central red stripe and a 1 mm horizontal red line.
- Four rank stripes: four silver galloncini edged in red (1 mm) with a black-striped center, applied at temple level on each side.
- High-quality construction: made from durable materials to retain appearance and function over time.
- Reserved distribution: sale limited to serving Carabinieri personnel or licensed collectors under legal requirements.
- Sensible for duty or display: suitable for official uniforms, ceremonial use, and verified military surplus collections.

How to use / When it’s useful

Use this soggolo as part of the formal uniform for official duty, inspections, or ceremonial events. It identifies rank visually and complements standard Carabinieri dress regulations.

Quick answer: wear it on the uniform at the temple area where rank bands are required. In most cases, purchase and delivery require proof of service or an approved collector license for proper handling and legal compliance.

Care and notes

Keep the band in good condition by storing it flat and avoiding contact with harsh chemicals; follow your unit's uniform care rules for cleaning and maintenance.

- Store flat or on a padded form to avoid creases.
- Avoid machine washing; spot-clean gently if needed and follow uniform care guidance.
- Sale is reserved to serving Arma dei Carabinieri personnel with ID verification.
- Collectors must provide a copy of the prefectural license (ex art. 28 TULPS) to complete purchase.
