Product overview

The Battaglione Alpini Gemona enameled metal badge is a collectible insignia for military history enthusiasts, veterans, collectors of military surplus and tactical gear, and anyone interested in Alpini heritage. Definition: a small enameled metal emblem that represents the Battaglione Alpini Gemona and its traditions.

This badge combines historic symbolism—the winged eagle, piccozza (ice axe), the number 8 and the Friulian motto "Mai D'Aur"—with high-quality enamel and raised detail. It is suitable for display, uniform replicas, or as part of a military surplus or duty equipment collection.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: use this badge as a collectible emblem for display, a commemorative piece, or an accent on replica uniforms and tactical gear displays. In most cases, buyers are collectors, history enthusiasts, or those assembling period-accurate uniforms.

Common uses include mounting on display boards or shadow boxes, attaching to lapels or caps on private replica garments, or keeping in a collection of military surplus and duty insignia. It is a visual tribute to the Battaglione Alpini Gemona and its traditions.

Care and notes

Basic care keeps the enamel and metal finish in good condition; handle the badge gently and store it properly.

- Avoid harsh chemicals and abrasive cleaners to protect the enamel finish.
- Store in a dry place and keep separate from heavy items to prevent scratches.
- Not customizable: the badge follows the historical design and is sold as produced.
- Small item: keep away from children and pets to avoid choking hazards.
