How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Worn as part of the official San Marco Regiment uniform for duty, ceremonies, and formal naval occasions. It also suits collectors of military surplus and historical gear.

In most cases, the beret is used with naval dress or tactical dress where the San Marco badge is required. Purchase requires documentation: serving personnel must submit identification or a delivery address at their barracks; collectors must provide a prefectural license under art. 28 TULPS for verification.

Care and notes

Basic care and purchase conditions to preserve the beret and comply with rules.

- Professional cleaning recommended (dry clean or specialist wool care); avoid machine washing.
- Keep the badge dry and avoid abrasive contact to preserve the hand embroidery.
- Sale restricted: active Marina Militare personnel must provide ID or barracks for delivery verification.
- Collectors must send a copy of the prefectural license (art. 28 TULPS) to complete the purchase.

FAQ

Q: Who can purchase the Basco Marò Reggimento San Marco?

A: Only serving Marina Militare personnel and collectors with a valid prefectural license (art. 28 TULPS) may buy this beret. Verification is required before sale.

Q: What materials and construction does the beret use?

A: The beret is made of 100% wool with a full grosgrain rim and a hand-embroidered gold canutiglia badge on a red background. The plate measures 22 cm.

Q: How do I prove I am eligible to purchase?

A: Serving personnel must send a copy of their service ID or indicate their barracks as the delivery address for verification. Collectors must submit the prefectural license required by art. 28 TULPS.

Q: Is the badge original and hand-embroidered?

A: Yes, the badge is hand-embroidered in gold canutiglia on a red field, matching the Marina Militare style used by the Reggimento San Marco.

Q: What is the beret size and fit?

A: The beret has a plate diameter of 22 cm, which provides a standard, comfortable fit for most users. Adjust fit according to head size and uniform regulations.

Q: Can I have the beret shipped to a barracks address?

A: Yes. If delivery is to a barracks, indicate it during purchase; the address will be verified before the purchase filter is removed and the order processed.
