Product overview

The Bronze Kosovo Croce Rossa Medal is a service medal awarded to Carabinieri who took part in the Kosovo mission with the Croce Rossa (Red Cross). It is intended for former or current service members, family members, and collectors of military surplus, tactical, or police memorabilia.

Definition: a bronze service medal (37 mm) recognizing participation and merit during the Kosovo Red Cross mission.

Main features

Clear, symbolic design and a single standardized size make this medal suitable for display, commemoration, or inclusion in a military surplus collection.

- Bronze construction: Finished in bronze with defined relief details.
- Ribbon: White ribbon, 37 mm wide, with blue/yellow/blue/white end panels and a central red stripe representing the Red Cross.
- Front symbolism: Shield showing the geographic area of Kosovo topped by six five-pointed stars, representing the six ethnic groups (gorani, serbi, turchi, bosniaci, rom, albanesi).
- Merit inscription: Semi-circular text "MEDALJE PËR MERITË" (Medal for Merit) on the front.
- Reverse detail: Inside a roundel, the Red Cross with the inscription "Kryqi i Kuq i Kosoves" (Croce Rossa del Kosovo).
- Standard size: Available only in the 37 mm format for a uniform appearance.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: The medal is a commemorative/service award for Carabinieri who served with the Kosovo Croce Rossa mission and is used mainly for display, commemoration, or collection.

In most cases, you will use this medal as part of a personal memorabilia display, a military surplus collection, or as a keepsake to honor service. It is appropriate for display cases, presentation frames, or secure storage with other duty and police items.
