Product overview

The Soggolo Tenente Arma Carabinieri is a duty chinstrap designed for Tenente (Lieutenant) officers serving in the Arma dei Carabinieri. Definition: a decorative and functional silver fabric chinstrap worn above the visor of the rigid service cap to denote rank.

This item is reserved for active personnel; purchase requires verification of service (copy of service ID or indication of command location). Collectors may buy only after sending a copy of the licenza prefettizia ex art. 28 TULPS. Suitable for police, tactical, and military surplus collections.

Main features

Quality construction and clear rank marking in a compact, service-ready design.

- Material: 11 mm high silver-coloured fabric tape for durability.
- Rank detail: Two silver galloons edged in black, positioned at the temples.
- Attachment: Fits above the cap visor and fastens with two silver metal buttons.
- Restricted sale: Reserved for active Arma Carabinieri personnel; verification required before purchase.
- Use cases: Service dress, ceremonial duty, and verified military surplus collections.

How to use / When it’s useful

Place the soggolo over the rigid cap visor so the galloons align at the temples. Fasten it securely to the cap using the two metal buttons supplied; check fit before wearing for duty or ceremony.

Quick answer: It attaches above the visor and is held by two metal buttons. In most cases, the strap is used with formal service headgear to display rank and maintain a neat, professional appearance.

Care and notes

Basic care will keep the soggolo presentable while preserving rank markings and fabric finish.

- Spot clean with a damp cloth; avoid harsh detergents or bleaching agents.
- Store flat or on a cap to prevent creasing of the tape.
- Sale is subject to identity verification; you must provide a copy of your service ID or indicate your command location during registration.
- Collectors: provide a copy of the licenza prefettizia ex art. 28 TULPS to complete purchase verification.
