Product overview

Cavaliere Ordine Merito Santo Sepolcro Gerusalemme is a ceremonial collar-style medal for collectors, ceremonial units, reenactors and anyone interested in military surplus or historic insignia. It is a wearable decoration that represents the Knight of the Order of Merit of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem.

Definition: a metal cross pendant on a white ribbon (37 mm) with three red pales, intended for display or formal wear. The piece is valued for its historic design and careful workmanship and is sought after by collectors of tactical, military surplus and police ceremonial items.

Main features

Clear, durable construction and recognisable heraldic design make this collar suitable for wear or framed display.

- Distinctive design: Red-enamelled metal cross with gold edging, surrounded by bands of thorns.
- High-quality materials: Metal construction with enamel finish and gold-colour thread detail for lasting appearance.
- Size: Cross diameter 5 cm — compact and proportioned for collar wear.
- Ribbon: White ribbon 37 mm wide with three red pales for formal presentation.
- Secure attachment: Two thin ribbons at the ribbon ends allow fastening to a collar or uniform.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: wear the collar on formal or ceremonial occasions, or keep it as part of a collection or display case. The pendant is designed to hang from the ribbon and be secured to a collar or garment using the thin end ribbons.

In most cases, the piece is used for ceremonial duty, historic displays or by collectors of military surplus and police insignia. It also fits well with uniform accessories for reenactment and formal presentation.

Care and notes

Simple care preserves the finish and detail; store the collar in a dry, padded box when not in use.

- Avoid prolonged exposure to moisture and direct sunlight to protect enamel and gold-colour details.
- Do not use abrasive cleaners; clean gently with a soft, dry cloth.
- Handle by the ribbon when possible to limit wear on the enamel surface.
- Limited availability: stock quantities are small, so consider ordering promptly if you need one for a specific event.

FAQ

Q: What materials are used for the cross?

A: The cross is metal with a red enamel finish and gold-colour edging. The ribbon is fabric 37 mm wide with three red pales.

Q: What are the cross dimensions?

A: The cross measures 5 cm across. This size is suitable for collar wear without being oversized.

Q: How is the cross attached to a collar?

A: The cross hangs from the main white ribbon and the two thin ribbons at the ends are used to secure it to the collar or garment.

Q: Is this item suitable for display or wear?

A: Yes. It is designed for both formal wear and collector display, commonly used in ceremonial contexts or as part of a military surplus collection.

Q: Is the item durable?

A: The piece is made with sturdy metal and enamel intended to maintain its appearance with normal care. Avoid rough handling or abrasive cleaning.

Q: Is the product limited in availability?

A: Yes, quantities are limited. Each piece is produced with attention to detail, so availability can be restricted at times.
