Product overview

The Croce Anzianità ed Eccellenza I classe for 50 years of Attività Personale Mobilitabile CRI is an official service decoration awarded to mobilizable personnel of the Croce Rossa Italiana in recognition of long, meritorious service. It is intended for members of the Italian Red Cross who have completed the required service milestone.

Definition: a Class I service and excellence cross presented to qualifying mobilizable staff of the Croce Rossa Italiana after 50 years of service. This listing is relevant for searches related to military surplus insignia, tactical and duty decorations, and emergency service honors.

Main features

Compact and formally designed, the cross combines a gold-coloured metal badge with a distinctive white silk ribbon and a decorative metal clasp.

- Design: Greek pattee cross in gold-coloured metal, 40 mm across, with slightly concave arm edges and a central round shield bearing a Greek cross (neutrality emblem).
- Reverse marking: The back is inscribed with the Roman numerals “XXV” in lapidary letters (as seen on the piece).
- Ribbon: White silk ribbon, 37 mm wide, with two green vertical stripes at the sides (outer stripe 6 mm, inner stripe 2 mm).
- Decorative clasp: Gold-coloured metal fascetta showing an oak wreath topped by a gold cartouche embossed with “EXCELLENTIAM” in Roman letters.
- Official symbol: Represents 50 years of service and formal recognition by the Croce Rossa Italiana.
- Limited availability: Issued in limited numbers and held as an official award rather than a general retail item.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: this cross is an official award to be presented and worn according to Croce Rossa Italiana protocol, typically at formal events and service ceremonies.

In most cases, recipients wear the decoration on dress uniforms or during commemorative and ceremonial occasions to indicate long service and excellence. The piece is meaningful for duty display, historical records, and official recognition within emergency service circles.

Care and notes

Keep the cross and ribbon in good condition by storing them dry and handling them carefully; consult official guidelines before displaying or wearing on uniforms.

- Store in a dry, padded box to protect the metal and silk ribbon.

- Avoid abrasive cleaners on the metal finish; use a soft, dry cloth for light cleaning.
- Keep the ribbon free from stains and moisture to preserve colour and texture.
- Note: this is an official award; it is not generally available for private purchase by collectors unless issued by the Croce Rossa Italiana.

FAQ

Q: Who is eligible to receive this cross?

A: It is intended for mobilizable personnel of the Croce Rossa Italiana who have completed 50 years of meritorious service, per the award criteria.

Q: What are the dimensions of the cross?

A: The metal Greek pattee cross measures 40 mm across; the ribbon is 37 mm wide with two green stripes at the sides (6 mm outer, 2 mm inner).

Q: What material is the ribbon made from?

A: The ribbon is described as white silk. Handle it gently and keep it dry to maintain appearance.

Q: What does the inscription “EXCELLENTIAM” mean?

A: The word “EXCELLENTIAM,” embossed on the metal cartouche, signifies excellence and highlights the nature of the recognition.

Q: Can collectors buy this cross?

A: This decoration is an official award and is primarily conferred to qualified personnel; availability to collectors is generally restricted and depends on official issuance rules.

Q: Is the “XXV” inscription inconsistent with a 50-year award?

A: The piece shows the Roman numerals “XXV” on the reverse as part of its design. We report the marking as observed without assigning further interpretation.

Tip: Check availability and the correct variant before ordering; consider browsing related insignia and replacement ribbon options to complete a formal display or uniform set.
