Product overview

The Distintivo Ricamato Personale Congedo ANUPSA is an embroidered badge for retired personnel of the Associazione Nazionale Ufficiali Provenienti dal Servizio Attivo (ANUPSA). It is designed for use on combat uniforms and for collectors who need an authentic, reserved insignia.

Definition: an embroidered, low-visibility ANUPSA badge reserved for identified retired personnel. Suitable for tactical, military surplus, and duty uniform use.

Main features

Clear, durable design tailored to uniform use and authenticity checks.

- Exclusive design: green shield with black border, inner tricolour shield, grey star, laurel and oak fronds.
- Low visibility: subdued tricolour embroidery for a discreet tactical profile.
- Size: 5 cm width x 7 cm height—proportioned for combat uniforms.
- Durable materials: made to retain appearance and integrity over time.
- Restricted availability: reserved for personnel identified by an ANUPSA attestation.
- Suitable contexts: intended for military, duty, and police uniform use or collection display.

How to use / When it’s useful

Attach the badge to the combat uniform area designated for personal insignia; it provides a discreet, formal sign of service while maintaining a low-profile tactical appearance.

Quick answer: the badge is for retired ANUPSA personnel who can provide a copy of their attestation. In most cases, it is used on field uniforms, duty garments, or kept as a collector’s item.

Care and notes

Simple care keeps the badge in good condition and preserves authenticity.

- Store dry and protected from prolonged moisture or heat.
- Clean gently with a soft, damp cloth; avoid harsh chemicals or abrasive cleaning.
- Sale is restricted: you must provide a copy of ANUPSA attestation to confirm eligibility.
- Designed for uniform use—avoid altering the badge in ways that could compromise its appearance or verification.

FAQ

Q: Who can purchase the Distintivo Ricamato Personale Congedo ANUPSA?

A: The badge is reserved for retired ANUPSA personnel who submit a copy of their ANUPSA attestation for verification at purchase.

Q: What are the badge dimensions?

A: The badge measures 5 cm in width and 7 cm in height—sized to fit combat uniforms without being bulky.

Q: What materials are used?

A: The badge is made from durable, high-quality embroidered materials designed to maintain appearance and integrity over time.

Q: Is the badge visible in low-light or tactical situations?

A: The badge uses a low-visibility, subdued tricolour design intended to keep a discreet profile in tactical and duty settings.

Q: How is authenticity verified?

A: Authenticity is confirmed by providing a copy of the ANUPSA attestation during purchase; this ensures the badge is issued only to eligible retired personnel.

Q: Can the badge be used for collecting or display?

A: Yes. Many buyers use it on uniforms or keep it as part of a military surplus or collector’s display, while following the eligibility and verification rules.

Tip: Choose the correct size and ensure you have your ANUPSA attestation ready before ordering. Browse related tactical and military surplus items to find matching uniform accessories and display options.
