Product description:

Product overview

The Croce Cooperazione Libia is a commemorative cross awarded to military and civilian personnel who took part in specified cooperation missions in Libya, including EUBAM Libia, Mission Ippocrate, the Nucleo di Collegamento at the Libyan Ministry of Defence, and Mission

Nauras. Definition: a commemorative medal recognizing service and international cooperation in Libya.

This medal is suitable for service members, families, and collectors of military surplus, tactical memorabilia, and duty awards. It represents formal recognition of participation and is presented as a tangible symbol of cooperation between the Italian state and Libya.

Main features

Clear design elements and two size options make this cross suitable for display, uniform wear, or collection.

- Design: Cross with arms pattee framed by two olive branches, symbolizing peace and cooperation.
- Center inscription: The front reads "PER LA COOPERAZIONE"; the reverse shows a five-pointed star.
- Ribbon: Light orange ribbon with three central tricolour bands (green-white-red, 5 mm each) and a browned metal tab stamped "LIBIA".
- Sizes: Available in standard 37 mm and gala 20 mm variants to suit different uses.
- Ordering: Reserve the desired variant by selecting the option in the product drop-down menu.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Wear the cross for formal ceremonies, attach it to a display case, or keep it as part of a personal collection of duty memorabilia. It is a formal recognition piece rather than an everyday accessory.

In most cases, recipients display the medal with other awards during official events or keep it as a keepsake documenting service. Choose the 37 mm for standard display and the 20 mm gala version for dress uniform presentations.

Care and notes

Handle the medal carefully and store it dry. Limited stock may apply—order the correct size at purchase.
