Product overview

The Croce per la Cooperazione in Somalia is a commemorative cross for military and civilian personnel who served in training and humanitarian missions in Somalia. It is designed for veterans, collectors, ceremonial wear, and institutions that document international cooperation efforts.

Definition: A commemorative medal-style cross awarded to participants in international cooperation missions in Somalia. Ideal for tactical, military surplus, duty, and police collectors looking for an authentic-looking recognition piece.

Main features

Clear, symbolic design and practical format choices make this cross suitable for display, uniform wear at formal events, or archival purposes.

- Distinctive design: Cross with splayed arms surrounded by olive fronds and the inscription "PER LA COOPERAZIONE". The reverse shows a five-pointed star.
- Ribbon and clasp: Light orange ribbon with three central 5 mm green-white-red stripes; bronzed metal clasp engraved "SOMALIA".
- Two sizes: Available in 37 mm standard and 20 mm smaller variant for gala or formal wear.
- Who it's for: Intended for military and civilian personnel who contributed to international training and humanitarian missions.
- Purchase options: Size selection available via dropdown to suit presentation or uniform rules.
- High demand: Produced in limited quantities because of its commemorative nature.

How to use / When it’s useful

Use the 37 mm size as a display or full-size medal and the 20 mm variant for miniature wear on dress uniforms or lapels during formal events. It is suitable for museum display, personal collections, or ceremony use.

Quick answer: Choose the 37 mm for full-size display or the 20 mm for formal dress and miniatures. In most cases, the ribbon with the "SOMALIA" clasp identifies the mission context and is appropriate for commemoration, presentation, or archival display.

Care and notes

Keep the cross in good condition with simple, careful maintenance and by selecting the correct format for your intended use.

- Store dry and flat to protect the ribbon and metal finish.
- Clean metal parts gently with a soft, dry cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners or chemicals.
- Select the desired size from the product dropdown before checkout.
- Limited availability: quantities may be restricted due to demand.
