How to use / When it's useful

Quick answer: wear or mount the ribbon on a uniform ribbon bar or keep it as part of a formal medal collection. It is suitable for display on single or multi-place ribbon bars used by duty, police, and ceremonial uniforms.

In most cases, select the attachment type (screw or clamp) based on how you plan to mount the ribbon. For multiple ribbons joined on a single metal base, use a two-or-more place ribbon bar designed to hold several ribbons together.
