Product overview

The Nastrino Merito Civile Senza Stella is a civil merit ribbon for honoring individuals, public bodies and corps who have shown exceptional dedication in helping those in need. It is suitable for civic ceremonies, municipal awards, police and duty recognition, and military surplus collections.

Definition: the Nastrino Merito Civile Senza Stella is a 37 mm official ribbon awarded under Italian law (20 June 1956, n. 658) to recognize outstanding service in aid and rescue. Available in the flat regulatory format or a slightly convex "Elite" variant, with optional screw or clamp ribbon mounts.

Main features

Key features designed for official display and long-lasting use:

- Regulatory format: flat, official appearance compliant with standard dimensions.
- Elite variant: slightly convex version for a more refined look.
- Customizable mounts: portanastrino with rear screw or clamp attachments selectable at purchase.
- High-quality materials: durable construction for long-term wear and display.
- Official size: available only in the 37 mm format.
- Legal recognition: issued in accordance with law 20 June 1956, n. 658.

How to use / When it’s useful

Use this ribbon to formally recognize civic service during award ceremonies, on uniform ribbon bars, or as part of a collection of military surplus and duty recognition items. Choose the flat format for a standard look or the Elite variant for a slightly elevated presentation.

Quick answer: use the Nastrino Merito Civile Senza Stella to honor individuals, entities or corps for exceptional aid and rescue efforts. In most cases, it is selected by municipal offices, police departments, emergency services and collectors who need an official 37 mm ribbon.

Care and notes

Small, practical notes for handling and storage to keep the ribbon in good condition:

- Store flat and dry to preserve shape and color.
- Avoid harsh chemicals or abrasive cleaning; wipe gently if needed.
- Select the appropriate portanastrino attachment (screw or clamp) for secure mounting.
- Product available only in 37 mm — check mount compatibility for multi-slot metal bases.

FAQ

Q: What size is the Nastrino Merito Civile Senza Stella?

A: The ribbon is available only in the official 37 mm format. This is the regulatory size used for civil merit ribbons.

Q: Can I choose between flat and Elite versions?

A: Yes. The flat format is the standard regulatory option, while the Elite variant is slightly convex for a more polished appearance.

Q: Are ribbon mounts included with the ribbon?

A: You can select portanastrini with rear screw or clamp attachments at the time of purchase via the product options. Mounts are offered to suit different display or uniform requirements.

Q: What materials are used for the ribbon?

A: The nastrino is made from high-quality, durable materials designed to resist wear and maintain a neat appearance over time.

Q: Is this ribbon an official recognition?

A: Yes. The Nastrino Merito Civile Senza Stella is an official civil merit ribbon governed by Italian law 20 June 1956, n. 658, for recognizing exceptional service in aiding those in need.

Q: Is the ribbon available in other sizes or colors?

A: The product is offered only in the 37 mm format. Color and design follow the official Merito Civile specification for the version without a star.

Tip: Choose the flat or Elite variant based on how you plan to display the ribbon and select the screw or clamp portanastrino for the most secure mounting. Check related ribbon bars and mounting options if you need multi-slot metal bases or other display accessories.
