Product overview

The Travette Generale Aeronautica Militare are a pair of hand-embroidered shoulder tabs for Generale rank, intended for serving personnel of the Aeronautica Militare. Definition: Travette are stitched rank insignia worn on the shoulder of the service uniform.

These high-quality, military-grade insignia are crafted on navy-blue cloth with a gold-framed eagle motif on a gold background. The product is reserved for Aeronautica Militare personnel and requires identity verification before purchase; suitable for duty use, ceremonial wear, or replacement of worn insignia.

Main features

Clear, durable design and traditional craftsmanship make these travette a formal and respectful representation of rank.

- Hand-embroidered on navy-blue cloth for detailed finish.
- Design: eagle with outstretched wings inside a gold frame on a gold background.
- Pair: sold as a set of two shoulder tabs for rank display.
- High-quality materials chosen for long-lasting appearance and wear.
- Restricted sale: available only to Aeronautica Militare personnel after verification.

How to use / When it’s useful

These travette are worn on the shoulder straps of the service uniform according to Aeronautica Militare regulations; they are appropriate for formal duty, inspections, and ceremonial occasions. Quick answer: worn by personnel holding the Generale rank as official rank insignia.

Use them when replacing worn insignia or when preparing the uniform for official events. In most cases, ordering requires proof of service or specifying your Command as the delivery location to complete verification and shipment.

Care and notes

Simple care preserves embroidery and cloth color; follow uniform care rules and handle the travette gently.

- Spot clean or take to a professional cleaner if needed; avoid abrasive washing that could damage stitching.
- Sale limited to Aeronautica Militare personnel—purchase requires a copy of your service ID or a delivery address at your Command for verification.
- Orders are processed after verification; processing time may vary based on document checks and stock availability.

FAQ

Q: Who can purchase the Travette Generale Aeronautica Militare?

A: Only serving personnel of the Aeronautica Militare can purchase these travette. Orders are subject to identity verification before completion.

Q: What documents do I need to buy them?

A: You must send a copy of your service ID card or provide your Command as the delivery location so we can verify your affiliation with the Corps.

Q: Are these travette available to the general public or collectors?

A: No. Sales are restricted to Aeronautica Militare personnel only; collectors or the public cannot purchase them without verified military affiliation.

Q: How are the travette made?

A: Each travetta is hand-embroidered on navy-blue cloth featuring an eagle in a gold frame on a gold background, reflecting traditional craftsmanship and attention to detail.

Q: How long does delivery take?

A: Delivery times vary depending on document verification and stock availability. We process and ship orders as quickly as possible after verification is complete.

Q: Can the travette be shipped to my unit or Command?

A: Yes. You may indicate your Command as the delivery address during checkout; this option is commonly used to simplify verification and receipt of the item.

Tip: Choose the correct variant (pair for Generale) and ensure your service ID or Command details are ready to speed up verification. Browse related rank insignia and uniform items to complete duty and ceremonial needs; select items that match your uniform regulations and intended use.
